At Antioch High School

Homecoming festivities to start Sept. 29

By KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

Autumn has arrived and with it comes the excitement of homecoming festivities. This year the theme for Antioch High School's week-long celebration is "Golden Memories", commemorating 50 years of the student council.

According to Jason Bonds, chairman of the advertising committee and a junior at the high school, homecoming starts with a window painting contest. On Saturday, Sept. 29, all four classes will take over the stores on Main St. and proceed to paint their windows with spirit messages. The downtown merchants have donated their space and village trustees will judge the creations.

Throughout the week, the students will pass money into four spirit wells, one for each class. Geared to raising money for the end-of-the-year prom, the students will pitch pennies into their own class well and larger coins and dollars into the other classes' wells. Having pennies in the well earns points for the class and having anything else subtracts points. The class winner earns a trophy and the junior class who sponsors the prom raises money.

"This is a new activity for us and we're really excited," Bonds said.

On Wednesday, Oct. 3, there will be a male beauty contest in the north gym. "There will be 3 events -- swimming wear, talent and evening wear," Bonds said. The price to see the contest is $2.

Friday night, Oct. 5, is the pep rally, beginning at 7:30. A dance is scheduled afterwards, also in the north gym. There will be a video disc jockey and the dance will last to 11 p.m. Students with identification and wearing red clothes are admitted free. Otherwise, tickets are $1 for students not wearing red and $3 for everyone else.

The next day are the parade and the big games. At 10 a.m. the parade commences down Main St. in Antioch, with the sophomore game following at noon. At 2 p.m. the varsity comes to the gridiron. Both teams are playing North Chicago.

The last event is the dress-up dance at 7:30 p.m. According to Bonds, tickets in advance are $7 per couple and $4 single.

The price changes to $5 for everyone at the door. Disc Jockey Mark Thompson will be providing the tunes.

"This is really an exciting time for the students," Asst. Student Advisor Anne Kakacek said. "Homecoming is a special time of the year for the school."

For more information, call the high school at 708-395-1421.

Plans for new school set in motion: Allen

The Antioch School Dist. 117 Board of Education is beginning to develop the preliminary plans of the proposed new high school in preparation for the April ballot to decide if the new high school will be a reality.

According to the growth and development committee of the board, it will focus on the following tasks during the next two weeks:

-- Taking soil borings at the Polley Field site (southeast corner of Deep Lake Rd. and Grass Lake Rd.) to determine if the property is suitable for building. Supt. Gary Allen said Polley Field is the district's number one priority --the district already owns the property and it is large enough for the site needed. Allen did add that a final site determination should be set next month.

-- Securing costs for a sewer hook-up from Lindenhurst to Polley Field. Allen said he believes that will be okay with Lindenhurst, but formal negotiations still need to be made.

-- Determining three finalists in choosing an architectural firm for the project. According to Allen, the district will strive to acquire a scale model and subsequent preliminary plans from the chosen architect before the April ballot, but will wait to receive detailed drawings until the school is given the go-ahead.

-- Determining what style building is most desirable. Allen said members of the board, high school personnel as well as he will visit schools in the area that have 2,400 or more students to determine what type of building is suitable for the Antioch district.

Allen is anxious to set the plan in motion. "We want to continue to have a quality school. If we don't do something now, things will fall apart later."

Wetlands study eyed by agency

A series of meetings will begin in October to demonstrate the success in southern and Atlantic Coast states of using dredged materials for wetlands restoration.

The meetings will be sponsored by the Chain O'Lakes-Fox River Water Management Agency in conjunction with the Army Corps of Engineer, bringing together persons interested in such varied topics as water quality, conservation, fish and wildlife and health.

Chairman John Soffiatti, a Fox Lake attorney who heads the non-tax supported agency, said the possibility of applying techniques used in the Delta country, Louisiana and the Carolinas to the Fox Chain is "exciting."

Ponders future

Atty. John Soffiatti, chairman of Chain O'Lakes-Fox River Waterway Management Agency, ponders more productive era if wetlands restoration techniques used in southern states can be approved for Illinois. Wetlands are being built with dredged material. Maze of red tape in Illinois makes dredging difficult.---File photo Significantly, the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, has taken a special interest in what basically amounts to building wetlands with earth scooped up from the bottom of a body of water.

There presently is a maze of regulations in Illinois governing dredging and storage of dredged materials. The red tape controlling dumping sites or "spoils" areas is the major reason why the Water Management Agency has found it so difficult to initiate significant channel deepening projects designed to control flooding and improve water quality.

Soffiatti said the agency has just received five new permits for spoils storage, bringing to nine the number of sites where dredged material can be deposited. Most of the sites are in the lower Fox River. For sometime, the only permissible site for depositing dredgings in the Chain O' Lakes has been Ackerman Island near Antioch.

Condemnation proceedings now are in progress for two additional spoils sites, one on Grass Lake and another on the lower river.

"Finally, after six years we're beginning to see some light," sighed Soffiatti, expressing the frustration that has blunted the agency's mission of improving water quality, advancing safety and controlling flooding on one of the nation's busiest waterways, navigable waters stretching from Wilmot Dam, Wis., to Algonquin.

The agency has authority in Lake and McHenry counties. Funding is from state grants and permits purchased by boaters.

The chairman said dredging will continue on the lower river through cold weather months this year as long as ice doesn't prevent operations.

"As soon as vegetation starts in restored areas in the southern states, wildlife returns," Soffiatti remarked. He said a successful three acre pilot restoration project near Itasca is expected to enhance chances for new restoration efforts in the Chain O'Lakes.

In other business, the agency will be studying imposition of speed limits on the Chain and Fox River. "I'm in favor of limits. They work well for Lake Geneva," remarked Soffiatti, whose term will be up in 1993. The chairman and commissioners are elected at large by voters residing in agency territory along both sides of the river.

Mike Weiser, acting director, was voted permanent status as director in August. He replaces Albert Moltrum, who resigned under a cloud of scandal. Weiser, a resident of McHenry, will be paid partly by the state in connection with land acquisition work.

Soffiatti reported that a winter project for the permanent three-man staff will be painting marker buoys with reflective material that will be more visible at night. The agency maintains scores of buoys used to indicate safe boating channels.

Three commissioners are nearing the ends of their terms, George Thompson and Darrell Baker, both of McHenry, and Howard "Bud" Scott, Lake Villa. The agency election will be held in April, 1991, in conjunction with municipal elections.

Hess gains endorsement

Lake County Clerk Linda Hess has been endorsed for reelection by the Political Action Committee of the National Organization for Women.

"I am pleased to announce that we have endorsed you in the upcoming 1990 general election," Kim Villanueva, chair of the Illinois NOW PAC, wrote to Hess.

Two hearings about new Rte. 53 plans

Two public meetings on the proposed Rte. 53 through Lake County will be held in October. The first, on Thursday, Oct. 11, will be at Lake Zurich High School. The second, on Thursday, Oct. 25, will be at Brae Loch Country Club on Rte. 45, Grayslake. Both begin at 7:30 p.m.

The meetings are being arranged by the Public Service Committee of the Lake County Board. Among those on the program will be representatives of the Illinois Dept. of Transportation and Illinois Tollway Authority. Both state agencies are interested in building the six-lane expressway from the Cook County line to Rte. 120 in Grayslake.

Discussed will be the tentative route, where the project is today, process of acquiring land, protecting adjoining villages and landowners, planning and related matters leading to construction by the year 2010.

"Purpose of these meetings is to acquaint the public and property owners, in particular, with what is happening on Rte. 53," said Roberta "Bobbie" O'Reilly of Long Grove, a member of the County Board. "People in my area want to know who is tramping through their back yard," she said of surveyors mapping the route of the new expressway.

These meetings are in advance of public hearings on an environmental impact statement tentatively scheduled at the end of January by IDOT. Those meetings will be the formal ones that will determine the route and its impact on thousands of Lake County residents who live near the highway or will someday use it.

Carmel sets ad drive

Carmel High School Street Scenes will be sending a sales force of over 1400 young men and women to contact businesses, corporations and friends for the annual Street Scenes ad drive. The theme this year is Street Scenes "Escapes to the Islands." It is the major fundraiser event held for Carmel High School. Street Scenes will be held February 8 and 9, in Carmel High School. Estimated guests expected to attend this event will exceed 6,000.

Grass Lake hires two

The Grass Lake Board of Education attended to routine matters at its regular board meeting, accepting resignations from third grade teacher Sheila Byrnes and cheerleading coach, Sharon Jones, hiring Sandy Nolan to teach first grade and Robin Gwinn to replace Jones as cheerleading coach.

The board also approved the sending of a letter to the state certifying that the hazardous conditions on Grass Lake Rd. are unchanged.

According to Supt. Dr. Ruth Bill, the speed limit and the lack of sidewalks have always made Grass Lake Rd. a dangerous road for children heading to and from school to walk along or cross.

In other business, the board approved policies on: equal education opportunities for students; implementing Title IX; equal opportunity employment including grievance procedure; student welfare; fines fees and charges.

In a final move, the board reschedules the regular October board meeting to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 10.

Mayors' opinions differ on new ACHS building

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The mayors of the three municipalities concerned with the proposed construction of a new $32 million Antioch Community High School have varying opinions on the proposal.

Antioch Mayor Robert Wilton says the location of a site should be close to sewer and water connections to keep the cost down. "If the referendum passes and the Polley Field site is chosen, the cost of running sewer and water from the Lindenhurst plant, which is the closest, will be tremendous," said Wilton.

Lake Villa Mayor Joyce Frayer is not too sure that the growth committee considered all the other alternatives. She suggests temporarily having students that live close to Grayslake switch to Grayslake High School. "I don't know if I can support a $32 million bond for the new school," Frayer adds.

Lindenhurst Mayor Robert Ratch said, "I could not in good conscience support the referendum unless I know the location of the site. The Polley Field site seems to have priority right now and that is central to the school district. I

'If the Polley Field site is chosen, the cost of running sewers and water from the Lindenhurst plant will be tremendous.' —Wilton could support that site and I think my board agrees with me."

Although the Polley Field site at the intersection of Grass Lake and Deep Lake Rds. the number one site being considered, the ACHS Board is still looking at other unnamed sites.

School boards back merger

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

Members of the boards of education of both Lotus School and Fox Lake Elementary Dist. are poised to bring about the merger of the two neighboring school districts.

That could come about Oct. 29 at a meeting of the Lake County Board of School Trustees. This body has the final sayso in boundary matters and consolidations.

The Fox Lake board voted Monday night to accept the petition for annexation from Lotus School. A week earlier Lotus board members adopted a resolution calling for annexation.

Both actions were anticipated as the two schools have been talking merger for sometime, more intensively in recent months as the financial position of Lotus, partially within the village limits of Fox Lake and partially in unincorporated Antioch Township, continued to worsen. Lotus is operating this term under a deficit budget.

"This ends 13 years of off and on negotiations," observed Robert Sayles, Fox Lake board president. "We've been working on this that long and now it looks like it will come about."

The merger was spurred by a state incentive to consolidate. Gov. James Thompson signed into law Sept. 7 changes in the school code paving the way for the consolidation.

The joint district will receive a payment from the state of $588,000 spread over three years, based on a formula of $4,000 for each full-time teacher.

Joint Supt. Arthur Smejkal was quick to point out that the amount will be tempered by the loss of state aid to the Lotus district when the merger takes effect beginning with the 1991-92 school year.

"On the whole, though, we'll be ahead," stated Smejkal, who took over as Fox Lake superintendent July 1.

The merger will result in a district with an enrollment of approximately 700 pupils. Smejkal and his staff already are looking at space utilization. They are projecting Lotus and Forest School for lower grades with Stanton School becoming an intermediate-junior high facility. The change is projected for the fall of 1991.

A plan to have Lotus upper graders attend Fox Lake this year was scrapped when members of the American Federation of Teachers, the Lotus teachers' union, objected. The relocation of the Lotus students was designed to economize.

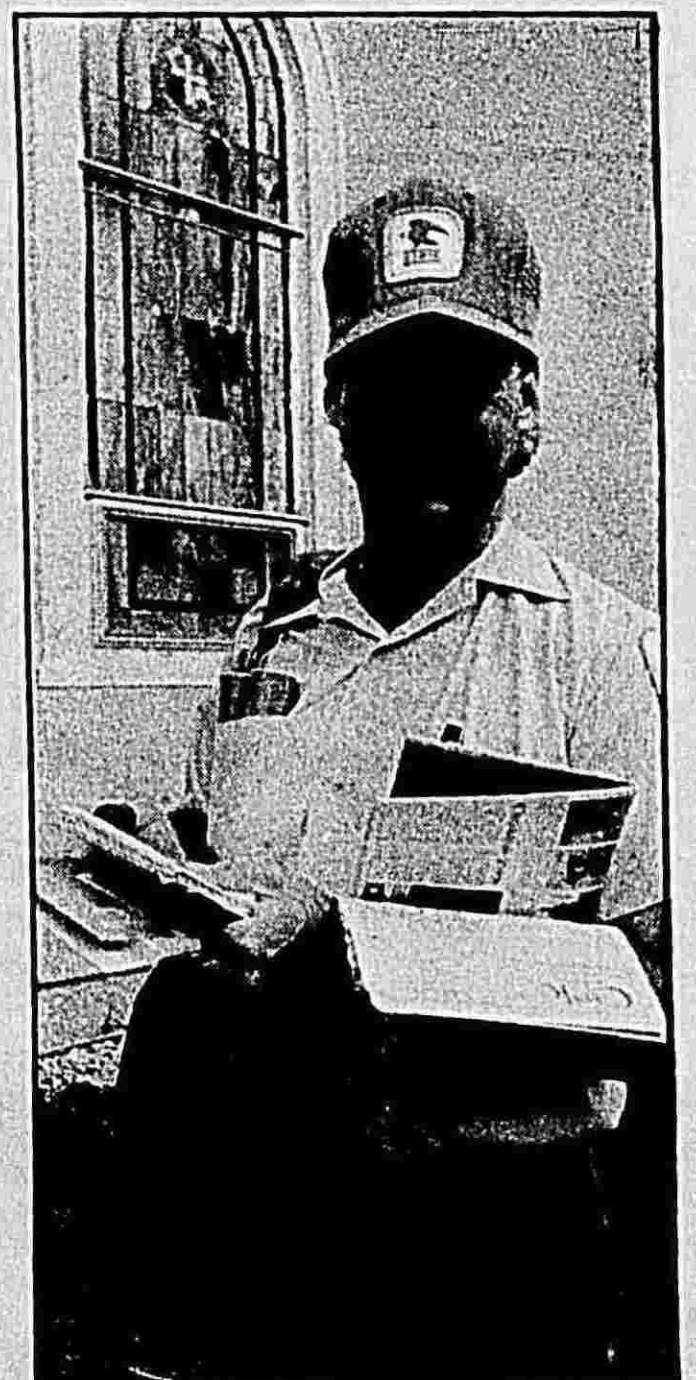

Believe iron caused fire

Firefighters from three departments pumped 9,000 gallons of water to extinguish a fire that gutted a two-story home in Antioch Township with damage to building and contents estimated at $100,000.

Mrs. Bert Mertes, 38475 N. Kent Ave., in the Lotus Woods/Spring Grove area, returned home at noon Tuesday from a morning bus driving job to find smoke pouring out of the building.

By the time firefighters from Fox Lake, Spring Grove and Antioch arrived, the home was engulfed in flames.

According to Fire Chief Stu Hoehne of Fox Lake, an investigation showed that an iron on the second floor was plugged in, which is being listed as probably cause.

Bike-A-Thon Sept. 30

"Once again the wheels are turning for the Antioch American Cancer Society Annual Bike-A-Thon to be held Sept. 30, according to the Chairman Gary Quendenfeld. "The response has been excellent with people being seen around town polishing their bikes, inflating their tires and eager to go!

Antioch's route, seven miles long, will be the same this year as last year.

It will start at the Antioch Fire Station on Orchard St. The Antioch Volunteer Fire Dept. is again sponsoring this worthwhile event. The Bike-A-Thon starts at 10 a.m. and riders must begin only from the first checkpoint at the fire station. There will also be two refreshment stops on the route.

Registration and pledge blanks may be obtained from all area schools, banks, the Antioch library, and the village hall, together with many area businesses, or phone (708)336-9293.

Kirkpatrick & Dahl, P.C., Lyons-Ryan-Ford-Lincoln-Mercury, Inc., State Bank of Antioch, and Strang Funeral Chapel have cooperated in providing the following prizes: To the top four winners, two savings bonds and two 10-speed bikes.

Those participants, not getting a larger prize, who bring in $200 plus in pledges will receive jackets, and riders with $50 plus in pledges will be awarded t-shirts.

"To maintain services provided area cancer patients without charge and to help strengthen research programs of the American Cancer Society as well as fund our public and professional educational programs, we hope to surpass last year's record receipts. These funds are needed to support the current cancer prevention and early detection programs of the American Cancer Society, which are so necessary to the health of our community."

Sprenger joins Edgar

Gubernatorial candidate Jim Edgar has welcomed the endorsement of Otto Sprenger of Antioch, who has joined the Realtors for Edgar Committee.

"Putting a lid on skyrocketing property taxes is a priority for all people, especially Realtors, and I have made property tax relief a cornerstone of my campaign platform. A healthy real estate market in our state is good for both home buyers and sellers and is an important ingredient to sustained economic growth."

Lizard's caller talks about the pitfalls of gossip

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(708)395-5380
Walls Have Ears

This past week, I received what I consider both a comical and yet disturbing phone call from Julie Pietrzak. Julie wanted to share a lesson concerning malicious gossip with all of us. On Friday, Sept. 21, she visited a garage sale in the Grass Lake area of Antioch and was saddened and angry over what she experienced there. The ladies conducting the sale were in the process of good old-fashioned gossip fest and did not have the intelligence, good sense, nor decency to stop ripping apart their current victim, even in the presence of what they thought was a stranger oblivious to their subject matter.

Well as it turned out Julie may have been a stranger to them, but she definitely wasn't a stranger to the person on their chopping block, in fact she also recognized several of the ladies who were doing the chopping. In her opinion they were being terribly unfair to their victim. Also in her opinion they were being rude to the people patronizing their sale by not considering the possibility that their conversation may not be very appealing to their customers. Julie toyed with the idea of commenting on their poor choice of subject matter, but decided not to dignify what she heard by reacting to their thoughtlessness. I guess there is more than one lesson to be learned here, the obvious being we must all guard against destructive malicious gossip; not to mention, if you can't say something good about a person don't say anything at all; or how about what goes around comes around, especially in a small town. On the other hand some of the best lessons in life are learned the hard way, and if the ladies guilty of this indiscretion are reading this column (and something tells me they are), I hope they have all learned that quite often "walls do have ears" and "it's a small world after all!"

ACHS News

I would like to share the following items of interest with you from our high school. As you know ACHS produces an award winning newspaper throughout the school year. If you are interested in receiving the monthly issues of the Tom-Tom in your home or business, send your name and address with a check in the amount of $4 to: Tom Tom Staff, Antioch Community High School, 1133 S. Main St., Antioch, IL 60002. It is that time of year again when ACHS will be engaged in Homecoming activities. The "Male Beauty Contest" will kick off the events on Wednesday, Oct. 3 at 7 p.m. in the north gym. I have attended two of these contests and had a fantastic time. It really makes for a special evening for everyone. On Friday, Oct. 5, the festivities continue with a "pep rally" and homecoming show and the grand finale or events takes place on Saturday, Oct. 6, with the parade in downtown Antioch at 10 a.m. The Homecoming football games beginning at noon, and finally the memorable Homecoming dance at 7:30 p.m. at the school. The Homecoming queen and king will be crowned during the dance at about 10 p.m.

This is a support/therapy group that helps people stick to their diets as set by their own family doctor. TOPS strives to help you change certain aspects of your life style that leads to bad eating habits. Anyone can join—men, women, teens, and children. Lotus School

Under the guidance of staff members Mr. Amberg, Mr. Kephart, Ms. Matysik, Mrs. Boddy, and Mrs. Cousino, the Lotus Junior High Classes participated in a field trip to Circus Equus at the Arlington International Race Course in Arlington Hts. They learned about many breeds of horses and occupations in the horse industry. Students saw educational exhibits and performances and were given the opportunity to talk with a veterinarian, farrier, and other experts at the many demonstration booths. Not only the students at Lotus School are learning, but the teachers are too! The teachers will be participating in several workshops during the school year that will instruct them on a new body of research on effective teaching developed over the past two decades. This year's focus will be on improving techniques and methods of teaching in the areas of "Direct Instruction" and "Cooperative Learning". Nancy Henn, the second grade teacher and the kindergarten teacher, Sha Tedrick, have been trained in the "Educational Research and Dissemination Program" and will be sharing their knowledge and skills with other staff members at Lotus.

Referendum battle heating up

By KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

It seems that both sides of the Nov. 6 referendum asking whether to appoint or elect the county offices of coroner and recorder of deeds have drawn up strong defenses on their positions.

The Lake County Board and administration believe that the two officials are basically administrative in nature and therefore do not merit the exercise of the voters to choose them. They would prefer the two officials to be appointed so that both offices would automatically adhere to the county's personnel code.

"We'd like to streamline the county government," County Board Chairman Norman Geary said. "Right now we have no control over these offices and the recorder of deeds specifically has repeatedly refused to voluntarily comply with our personnel code."

"He has come before (the board) and told us he will not use our classification system (of jobs for salary purposes) and therefore can set salaries differently from our personnel code. Salaries that the taxpayers have to pay."

"That's a lot of 'hokey'," Frank Nustra, recorder of deeds, said. "I don't think they're right (about higher salaries). Yes, I do not use their classification system. That's my right according to the Illinois statute and opinions of the state's attorney and attorney general. (My employees) work for me under my supervision and I believe I am paying them fairly and competitively with the other county offices."

Should coroner and recorder of deeds be appointed?

According to Asst. County Adm. Bill Barron, the county understands the elected officials' right to set their own classification system, but asks them to voluntarily comply with the county's personnel code so that the offices can have unified standards.

"We have a plural executive system here, with eight elected officials within a county government structure. We work very closely and would like unified standards." He said all other offices except the recorder of deeds do voluntarily comply with the county's personnel code.

County Human Resources Coordinator Cliff Van Dyke explained the county's need for a classification system. "Classification tends to provide equal pay for equal work across job (descriptions). It compensates for the complexity of the job (the relative value internally) and the external market place (what the worker would receive working privately)."

Nustra said he does not see any problem not following the county's classification code. "If there is any wrongdoing, why don't they sue me?"

"If they want to come into my office and compare actual salaries of the positions to other offices, they are welcome to do so," he added.

Van Dyke said Nustra has never before requested a classification or market study. Geary added that this is the first he has heard of that and wouldn't even know if it would be feasible or make sense.

Geary did say the County Board based its decision to file the Nov. 6 referendum on the findings of a study commission headed by Sidney Danoff. Danoff reiterated that the major point of the appointed/elected decision is that the two offices are strictly administrative posts and not policy making posts. He said the decision to ask for appointment was unanimous. He added that the study commission met for over a year and included 14 people from various areas throughout the county and that the commission was bi-partisan.

County Coroner Barbara Richardson said the commission didn't take the time to really study her office. "They called all of us (the elected officials) in for one meeting for a very few minutes. I think I spoke for only a 10-minute period of time. I don't know where they are coming from."

She said there is another committee studying the issue, headed by three township supervisors and including members from all facets of the county, both public and private. She said she hopes the committee would publish its findings before Oct. 1.

"I also wish the county would go down to the morgue, come into our office to see what's going on," she said. "I'd like them to get all of the facts."

"I don't understand why they would think this is predominantly an administrative position. They don't know anything about the office or its conduct -- we continually interact with the public on a one-on-one and group basis."

"Personally I believe in the power of the ballot box. The people who elect us are smart enough to make the right decision and if something wrong is happening, they are smart enough to choose again. If they vote no on the referendum, that means they are saying 'don't fix what is not broken'."

According to Richardson, if the referendum is successful the job would go to the highest bidder.

She hopes the public will not confuse the issue with the person. "This is not Barbara Richardson against the county."

Nustra however, believes that this is the county's vendetta against him.

Churchgoers celebrate their 150th birthday

Celebrates 150th

Washburn Congregational Church members celebrated the church's 150th anniversary with special service Sunday. Prairie View church is one of the oldest in Lake County, as the land for the church was donated by Seth Washburn in 1836. Pastor Monte Ballard shows off the birthday cake.

Washburn Congregational Church members celebrated the past and looked to the future Sunday as the oldest church in Lake County recognized its 150th birthday.

State Rep. and Vernon Twp. Supv. Bill Peterson presented a resolution passed by the legislature to pastor Monte Ballard.

Peterson said he is hoping the Prairie View Church on Indian Creek Rd. will gain national historic landmark status. "We are actively pursuing it," Peterson said.

Former pastors Rev. Thom Samson, 1942-46; Rev. Ed Trindle, 1947-50; and Rev. Louis Wakeland, 1956-62 sent letters of congratulations.

"Just standing here brings back memories," Rev. Herbert Duenow said. Duenow, of Vernon Hills, served as pastor from 1962-74 and was known for his book reviews.

Ballard, pastor since 1988, said the anniversary celebration has been in the works for three months.

The church's history began in 1836.

Following the work of the circuit riders, Seth Washburn gave a plot of ground for church and school purposes. The grant was given to a group which organized as the Middlesex Congregational Church with Elbridge C. Howe as the first pastor.

In 1844, the first church building was begun and completed in the early 1840s. The church was built in old New England style with separate entrances for both men and women. This same building is used as a Sunday School today.

In 1876, fire gutted a church building but the townspeople, responding to the alarm, extinguished the fire before much damage had been done.

In 1919, a second church featuring a tall steeple, was struck by fire. Only the Bible, the pulpit and lectern, organ and two chancel chairs were rescued.

The present church building was started in 1921.

In 1950, the church had a first full-time pastor.

Ballard became pastor after graduating from Trinity Divinity School.

Sharp to address GOP

The Lake County Republican Federation's annual meeting, held each year during the month of September, has been set for Saturday, Sept. 29, at the Meadows 21 restaurant in Libertyville, beginning at 9:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast.

Through the efforts of Lake County Republican Chairman and State Rep. Robert Churchill Director of the Illinois State Lottery, Sharon Sharp will be the keynote speaker.

President David Amory said, "Having Sharon Sharp, a vibrant, witty speaker, will certainly add a spark to the morning!"

Since her appointment as lottery director in 1987, she has made Illinois' lottery program among the most successful in the country, generating hundreds of millions in revenue for the Illinois State Treasury.

Amory also points out that the meeting would also transact important business. "The Federation's officers and board members will be elected for the coming year, as well as updating our membership and financial status, and the recipient of this year's Bob Milton Award will be announced." This award is presented annually to an outstanding Lake County Republican.

At the speaker's request, R.S.V.P. by calling Republican Headquarters at (708)623-0235 or (708)244-0965 by Sept. 27.

Absentee voting begins

Absentee voting for the Nov. 6 General Election will begin by mail or in person at the county clerk's office Sept. 27, advises Lake County Clerk Linda Hess. The office is open for voting from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and on Friday the office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Voters who wish to vote by mail may call the Absentee Voting Dept. at (708)360-5912 to request an application for ballot.

"Absentee voting will also be conducted in the following municipal and township offices beginning on Monday, Oct. 15," Hess said. Township Offices: Antioch, Avon, Benton, Cuba, Deerfield, Elmhurst, Fremont, Grant, Lake Villa, Libertyville, Shields, Vernon, Warren, Wauconda, West Deerfield, Zion; Municipal Offices: Buffalo Grove, Hawthorn Woods, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Mundelein, North Chicago.

Village input the key

Perhaps somewhat grudgingly, members of the Lake County Housing Task Force are admitting that the success of the fact finding and advisory body will be in direct relationship to participation and support of municipal leaders.

Over the years, involvement of the elected representatives of grassroots government, mayors and trustees, in county and regional projects has been rather dismal. Any idea originating in the County Building is suspect as far as the village fathers are concerned. Planning, transportation, sanitation, stormwater management, economic development, wetlands preservation, environmental protection. You name it.

There is no reason to believe that municipal officials won't look askance at the Housing Task Force mission, which is straight forward and vital: determine appropriate strategies to make housing affordable for residents of all income levels. Once again, county government is on the cutting edge of a significant social problem. We've made that observation before. So have others. Lamentably, village councils are more concerned with fixing potholes, picking up garbage, and, in recent years, building bigger and more expensive subdivisions.

While there is carping at the village council table about "the county taking over," the fact of the matter is that county government continues to provide the leadership so necessary to deal with regional problems. While village boards continue to approve more subdivisions that create the population of new drivers that clog local highways, typically the solving of gridlock and rush hour problems is left up to the Lake County Division of Transportation and other agencies.

On rare occasions, villages do join in cooperative efforts, like implementation of extended 911, bringing Lake Michigan water to central Lake County and pooling know how to reach solutions to corridor questions like the extension of Rte. 53. All too often, though, the city fathers---and mothers---mount a pedestal, face Waukegan and opine resolutely, "No way. We have our rights."

We earnestly hope that this time the mayors and council members will see the advantages of becoming a part of the process of finding solutions to local housing needs. It will be more advantageous for municipalities to act now instead of reacting next June when the Task Force findings are due. It's the old story of becoming a part of the solution rather than being part of the problem. An adequate supply of affordable housing will benefit all. Let's get Lake County municipalities on the bandwagon now.

Getting ComEd's ear

For half a century, renewal of the franchise agreement between Commonwealth Edison, its predecessor companies and local municipalities pretty much has been an automatic procedure. That era may be coming to an end, not only because of innovative villages like Spring Grove striking out to obtain a new source of electric power, but of growing concern over what goes into the agreements and how they operate.

Inquiry into the franchise agreements is being spearheaded by the Northwest Municipal Conference, a regional council of local governments representing 34 municipalities and five townships in northern Cook and parts of DuPage and Lake counties. Lake County membership includes Barrington, Buffalo Grove, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Lake Zurich, Libertyville and Vernon Hills.

Conference members authorized a feasibility study on municipalization of the electric distribution system. That's a high toned way of saying, "Let's see what's in it for us for being in the electric business."

For almost a year, the conference has been studying franchise agreements. One thing the action has resulted in is getting some communities to refrain from renewing current agreements until legal and technical research is completed.

While it is not anticipated that a flock of municipalities will "jump ship" like tiny Spring Grove did to obtain an alternative source, what is anticipated is that the cities and villages will become much more aware of technical and regulatory changes and make sure they are written into new agreements. Just to keep ComEd officials more on edge than they already are, the study will look at present and future energy needs and "identify alternative power sources."

Conference leaders also hope to work out a model ComEd franchise agreement. The study is scheduled for completion sometime after Jan. 1. To be sure, municipalities are getting ComEd's attention on matters like quality of service, safety, emergency procedures and consumer protection. That sounds like a worthwhile goal, even if it falls far short of every village getting into the electricity business.

Killing on Fairfield Rd.

Editor:

I read Elgar Putman's letter and I agree with him that animal cruelty is a reality. It is not only in the country, but all over the world.

On a recent trip to California, I did not see one animal killed on the road. But when I got home, it's another story. On Fairfield Rd. on my way to church in Lake Zurich, it looks like "Slaughterville." People go faster than the speed limit. All we do is kill, kill, kill no matter if it's people or beasts.

We all are God's creatures. I do not go for setting terrible traps, either.

Chewing up the Landscape

Editor:

Regarding Eleanor Altenbern's letter of Sept. 7, if she is so fond of strip malls perhaps she should move to Schaumburg or some other city where the desire to consume is greater than the desire to live in some sort of harmony with nature. It is attitudes like Altenbern's that reflect part of the problem in Lake County: more and more strip malls chewing up our natural landscape.

National lottery

Editor:

Everyone wants to be a winner. Most of us like to make a wager. Whether it's bingo, sports events, stocks, or just plain dice - ours is a country of risk takers.

Why not take a big chance that would benefit us all? Our bidding myriad of state lottery games allows each of us to "get it out of our system" and benefit the state as a whole by adding to the revenue.

If our country had a national lottery, let's say, once or twice a year with all profits for use only to retire the national debt, perhaps we'd all get lucky. To support their national cause I'm sure each state lottery director could donate the equipment and manpower for a once a year charitable cause. Or our voting bureaucracy could be the avenue to administer the program.

Maybe a slightly different approach could net us a triple play. What if we held our national lottery on election day? Cast a vote and take a chance. Sounds kind of catchy, doesn't it? A person could designate on his ballot or some other ticket his lottery choices and serve his country twice.

A happy voter, votes often. The old political battle cry vote early and often had a negative implication. But if the voter is happy, the percentage of voters increases, and we raise revenue to ease the deficit, we'll have pulled off a citizen assisted triple play. Then our cry may become vote once, but often!

Advocates branch offices

Editor:

I want to elaborate on the idea of a branch office for the western and southern parts of the county which seem to be remote from Waukegan.

Such an office can be opened without much additional expense since the Lake County Health Dept. has two branch locations already in Wauconda and Lake Villa. The County Clerk's office could use a little of their space for drop-off and pick-up of documents rather than driving up to Waukegan. Besides, who would want to do county business on Friday evenings after work, the only evening the clerk's office is open?

For running elections, I want to promote the use of the precinct ballot counters. Cook County has used the counters since 1973 and has been successful in reporting elections as early as 8 to 9 p.m. since they use the precinct ballot count as the official election tally. (Continued on next page)

Navy center's home extends into 2 states

by BILL SCHROEDER

After 31 years in the Navy, Rear Adm. James W. Partington is used to getting settled in new quarters and getting acquainted with new duties.

But in assuming command of Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Partington is not only back in his native midwest, but he and his wife, Barbara Jean, are "moving into the best home we've ever had," the venerable commandant's home on a bluff overlooking Lake Michigan.

A native of Omaha, Nebr., the crack fighter pilot feels right at home at Great Lakes, which he views as a community stretching from Wisconsin to the outskirts of Chicago. As he pointed out in a talk to a group of business persons, not all of the military personnel at the Navy's largest installation reside on the base. "They are residents of the communities in this area," he emphasized.

Partington is proud of his Cornhusker heritage and he takes pride in mentioning that he owns a farm in his homestate.

From the flat lands of Nebraska to a flat top in the Persian Gulf is the pathway followed by the much beribboned officer whose most recent post was Atlantic commander for the Strike-Fighter Wings. Partington, athletic and youthful, has served in the Pentagon and hot spots around the world.

"The entire world looks to the U.S. for leadership today," Admiral Partington remarked. One of his observations underscores why foreign nations are comfortable with America. "They know we will leave. We don't colonialize," the Great Lakes commander added, drawing on his background how the U.S. economy and military strength are linked.

The U.S. military is in better shape than ever, he stated. "When we get our economy in shape, there is not anything we can't do," Partington declared. He traced a 10 year span how the Navy has strengthened itself, going from a time when 35 to 40 percent of the sailors had drug problems to less than two percent today; going from a time when half the planes were operational to the situation today where 90 percent of the Navy's aircraft are up and flying. "We're ready to do anything our country asks," the soft-spoken flyer asserted emphatically.

Admiral Partington answered the question on the minds of everyone at the luncheon staged by the North Chicago Chamber of Commerce and Industry: What's the future of Great Lakes?

The Great Lakes mission basically is unchanged---training and motivating youths to take their place in the fleet to protect our nation's interests.

"My job security is pretty good," he added with a grin. That was another way of saying that the mission of Great Lakes Naval Training Center is secure.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY---Mom and pop enjoyed Parent's Day at Purdue, finding the youngest member of the family in good spirits and working hard. Only Bob admitted a touch of lonesomeness, not for his family or home, but for roommates. After the last two semesters in five and four-man rooms respectively, Bob says it is taking some doing to get used to living in a three-man room. For one thing, the silence is deafening. Another thing, there's plenty of extra space, so much so, that the roomies found a spot for a desk. Sigma Chi parents were delighted, by the way, to see that their sons are on the cutting edge of a new campus trend---studying in their rooms.

Politically Speaking

SHARP MEETING—There's no truth to the rumor about moving the date of the annual meeting of the Lake County Federation. Someone thought it might be a good idea because of a conflict with the Jewish holidays.

Forget it! The gathering will be Saturday, Sept. 29, at The Meadows 21 restaurant, near Rtes. 137 and 21 in Libertyville, starting at 9:30 a.m. A sharp Sharon Sharp, director of the Illinois state lottery will be guest speaker.

Among business of the day will be the election of federation officers and members for the coming year and announce the recipient of the Bob Milton Award.

FIGHTING FREEBIE—Two candidates for the County Board in Dist. 6 are coming out fighting.

Supv. Robert Grever of Ela Twp. and former Mundelein Mayor Colin McRae apparently are taking nothing for granted. "Having soundly defeated incumbents John Reindl and Bruce Hanson last March..." their latest press release says, they are now ready for a campaign rally.

It will be Tuesday, Oct. 9, at Fritz's banquet hall in Lake Zurich at Rte. 12 and Old Rand Rd. from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Just show up. It's a freebie!

GOP FOR GEUZI—A fund raiser was held for the Democratic County Board candidate in Dist. 6 last week. It was for Beth Geuzendam of Wauconda.

About 60 people showed up at $10 per person to show their support for this environmentalist.

Among the County Board members spotted were Waukegan Democrat Debbie Halas and Republicans John Reindl of Mundelein and Suzi Schmidt of Lake Villa.

"Apparently the party does not mean as much as the issues to the Republicans," an observer remarked.

CAMPAIGN RHETORIC—Republican Dr. Paul Chung of Barrington appears to be making his own campaign issues in the race for County Clerk.

"(Democratic incumbent Linda) Hess is telling people I am a lazy person and would not put in a full day as county clerk if elected," Chung said about a rumor he supposedly heard. "I find that offensive. A lazy person does not work three jobs to put himself through college as I did. I want to discuss issues, not call my opponent names."

"I've never said my opponent is lazy," Hess said. "I don't know his work habits."

"What I have said on the campaign trail is that my opponent is a full-time dentist who has said he will maintain his offices in Barrington and Hoffman Estates if elected," the incumbent said. "County clerk is not a part-time job like the County Board. This is a full time position with full-time salary. I think voters have a right to know what to expect from their elected office holders."

GREAT DOOR PRIZES—What a fund raiser there will be for Sue Suter, Republican candidate for state comptroller. It will be Friday, Oct. 5.

The place is the swank home of Jim and Glenda Schueneman on Kimberwick Ln. in Hunt Club Farms, Wadsworth. It only costs $50.

State Sen. Adeline Geo Karis (R-Zion) is one of the co-chairmen. Some great door prizes are lined up.

One will be a week at the equally swank Inns Brook Country Club in Tarpon Springs, Fla. Another will be two skybox tickets for a Chicago Bears game.

She promises more, maybe a door, too.

COMING EVENTS:

Many of many hats

Man of many titles is Art Wiech, right, who has his arm around Lake County Sheriff Clinton Grinnell. First, Wiech is the owner of Wiech's at Rtes. 83 and 60 in Ivanhoe and has been for 41 years. Second, as his name tag implies, he is a deputy, but only at sheriff's functions where this photo was taken. He is also the honorary mayor of Ivanhoe. Last, but not least, Wiech is a Democrat. "But I always vote for the man and not the party," he said, "so that is why I vote for Grinnell."

Saturday, Sept. 29—Annual membership meeting of Lake County Republican Federation at Meadows 21 restaurant, 1760 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, 9:30 a.m. Guest speaker Sharon Sharp, director of the Illinois Lottery. Bob Milton Award to outstanding Republican will be presented. Guests welcome. R.S.V.P. to GOP headquarters, (708) 623-0235.  Sunday, Sept. 30—Family fundraiser for Robert Depke, Dist. 5 candidate for County Board, at Temple Farms, 17000 Wadsworth Rd., Wadsworth, 1 to 6 p.m. Lipizzan performance, jazz band, televised Bear game, food and beverages. For $25 ticket call (708) 249-3116.  Sunday, Sept. 30—Fundraiser for Julia Edwards, Dist. 4 Democratic County Board candidate, the Red Noodle, Rte. 83, Round Lake Commons, 1 to 3 p.m. For $10 ticket that includes spaghetti, garlic bread, salad and cash bar, call Edwards at (708) 546-8586.  Wednesday, Oct. 3—Fundraiser for Bonnie Murphy, Dist. 3 County Board candidate, Murphy's Restaurant and Lounge, Wadsworth Rd. and Lewis Ave., Beach Park. For $10 ticket that includes sandwiches, snacks, beer, wine and pop, call Murphy's at (708) 336-4000.  Friday, Oct. 5—Fundraiser for Sue Suter, Republican candidate for state comptroller at home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schueneman, 37063 Kimberwick Ln., Hunt Club Farms, Wadsworth, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. For $50 tickets that include hors d'oeuvres call State Sen. In Lake County, election results arrive by 1 a.m. to 3 a.m. and even later if there is a computer breakdown, as in the last election. When elected, I want to speed up the election results as well as provide safeguards by using the precinct ballot counter. True, the counters cost $3,000 each, but the time and money we save in the long run will offset the expenditure which is a one-time cost to be authorized by the Lake County Board.

The present County Clerk says she has been in the office for eight years. This past April, there were four committeemen's races that were miscounted. If after eight years, she cannot run the elections without making that many errors in counting, then it's time to step down and let someone like myself run the office.

Restrain campaign costs

Editor:
Congress must act to restore public confidence in the election process. This summer, both the House and the Senate have the opportunity to address and resolve the major problems plaguing our current campaign finance system.

The problems are well known. The spiraling costs of campaigns are out of control - increasingly forcing legislators to sacrifice the public interest to special interest fundraising. The average citizen cannot hope to compete for influence with political action committees (PAC's) or large political party contributors. The average challenger to an incumbent faces a wall of PAC money and congressional privilege that is daunting and often defeating. The American voter feels disenfranchised and turned off.

There are no excuses for allowing the current campaign finance mess to continue. Congress must enact tough, comprehensive campaign finance reform legislation. Special interest influence from PAC's and big political party contributors must be strictly curtailed. Spending limits are needed to restrain escalating campaign costs. Candidates should receive low-cost broadcast time and reduced-cost postage so they can get their messages to the voters without being so dependent on special interest money. And small contributions from individuals should receive a tax credit to encourage more voters to participate.

Justices are 'nannies'

Editor:
Our ignorant and hypocritical press has once again managed to debase public debate into a crude, political cartoon. It's the White Knights who want to preserve our sacred First Amendment (minus a few sentences, of course) vs. yahoos who want to "trivialize" the Constitution.

"Free Speech" has never been absolute. You don't have the right, in the words of Justice Holmes, to falsely yell, "Fire" in a crowded theater. Nazi thugs yelling

"Heil Hitler" in front of Holocaust victims, Klansmen burning crosses in black neighborhoods, Communists praising Joe Stalin in front of Ukrainians, and yes, left wing punks burning flags in front of combat veterans, are not engaging in "political dialogue." Nor are child pornographer some Founding Father in disguise, "freedom fighters" against "tyranny."

Liberals who are such absolutists on "free speech" never have a problem ignoring other parts of the Constitution. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion" means religion conservatives must pay for "art" they regard as blasphemous. "No law... prohibiting the free exercise (of religion)" means a little old lady must pay huge fines if she doesn't rent to gays or "live-in" couples. "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed" means banning guns. "The right of the people to be secure in the persons, houses, papers and effects" means the IRS can seize your property without a court order. "No person... shall be compelled... to be a witness against himself" doesn't count on the 1040 form. The 9th and 10th Amendment mean the people and states have rights only when the Federal judiciary say they do.

I could go on and on, but it boils down to this — anything that opposes the liberal agenda is "unconstitutional." Anything that advances it is "right."

The real issue is unrestrained power. We have too many unelected, unaccountable institutions. From the IRS to the CIA, from the privately owned Federal Reserve to the black robed dictators of the Supreme Court. It's time all of us, liberal and conservatives, realize the danger and begin to bring power back to where it belongs, to the people and their elected representatives, particularly those at state and local levels where there is less chance of abuse.

There's a simple solution to ridiculous Supreme Court decisions. In Article 3, Section 2, the Constitution gives Congress the right to make "exceptions" to the "appellate jurisdiction" of the Supreme Court. Congress has the right to take controversial, complex cases from the Court and put them back to the individual states where they belong.

If we are going to remain together as a pluralistic, multi-racial society, we are going to have to have greater tolerance for local diversity. If Massachusetts wants to subsidize flag burners and Texas jail them, if New York want to pay for abortions and Utah ban them all, if Mississippi want "affirmative action" and Nebraska wants vouchers to go to church schools, it's time the country stop being at the mercy of whether the "swing" justices wake up on the right of left side of the bed.

Our "national nanny", our "superlegislature" has done more to destroy the constitution and our freedoms than any other institution. It's time we put more faith in the people, their juries, elected representatives and private institutions, and less in the whims of a powerful few.

Giving the Dowe touch

Photographer Barry Dowe, Lake Villa, whose philosophy is -- great pictures and personal attention, gives customers just that as he pays his personal attention to every phase it takes to produce photography art, starting behind the camera, wending through the dark room to the fine finished product.

Dowe takes pictures with a personal touch

By BECKY JOHNS
Lakeland Newspapers

When a customer first walks into Barry Dowe's Lake Villa studio, the first thing he sees is walls of portraits.

The second thing he sees is Barry Dowe himself.

Dowe's entrepreneurial story is a businessman's dream. Starting out as a wedding photographer for different studios around the Chicagoland area, Dowe became tired of "seasonal" work and layoffs and went into business for himself.

Dowe brought the Barry P. Dowe Photography Studio to life six years ago in his Lindenhurst home at first; but when business really started to boom, Dowe moved the studio to its current location in the Nielsen Plaza on Rte. 83.

"We realized shortly after we opened that it went so well and we were doing so well that I was getting booked up very early, and we ended up turning half the people away," said Dowe. So Dowe took on another wedding photographer.

Dowe says that the reason his business has become so successful is his personal touch, his genuine liking for his customers and love of his work.

"Each one of us (photographers) deals with customers differently. I try to take a very concerned approach. I genuinely like my customers," said Dowe. "I think that's how our photography differs from others I've seen, that it reflects our subject. I'm not trying to create a picture that I like, I'm trying to create a picture that they like and they're a part of."

Dowe may not hold a degree in photography, but his customers certainly don't hold it against him. He said a great deal of his work comes from referrals from past customers. Even more remarkable is that Dowe says in the six years he's been a wedding photographer, he's never had a single significant complaint about his work.

"Photography always struck me as a good thing to learn about and good to read about how to do this effect or that, but photography is something you've got to do," Dowe said.

Dowe first became interested in photography in high school. When he was a freshman in Holland, Mich., a friend asked if Dowe would like to go to the darkroom to develop pictures.

"When I saw that image come up, I thought it was the neatest thing I'd ever seen," said Dowe.

Dowe works with his wife, Kathy, and said their three-year-old son, David, spends a lot of time with them at the studio. Their seven-year-old daughter, Allison, goes to Prince of Peace school in Lake Villa.

Dowe's said his business philosophy is simple--great pictures and personal attention.

"We want our customers to feel like they're friends," said Dowe.

"Obviously they like our work," he said.

"I think at some point, price stops mattering. It isn't about how much the image costs, but how much the image means."

Avoiding the seven most common financial mistakes

by T. GAERTNER

Most of us would like to have a financially secure future, yet we are sometimes hampered by making financial mistakes along the way. Here are seven common financial planning mistakes to avoid.

1. Failure to establish a plan. Without a plan, financial decisions are often made piecemeal, with little or no connection to each other or to an overall goal. A financial plan is like a road map. It helps you to make the right decisions along the way with the end result of reaching financial security. A qualified financial planner can help you establish your plan with defined goals and objectives.

2. Failure to implement a plan. Creating a financial plan is only the beginning. If you do not implement the plan by purchasing the proper investments, the right insurance, executing estate planning strategies, and so on, it's like buying a road map but never using it.

3. Failure to start saving/investing early. I can not emphasize enough how important it is to start your savings/investment plan as soon as possible. If you could invest $160 a month, earning 10 percent, beginning at age 25, it would accumulate to more than $1,000,000 at age 65. If you wait and start investing at age 40, you will have to invest $750 per month to reach the same goal. You need to benefit from the positive effect of investment compounding and you need to start now.

4. Failure to systematically diversify investments. Thoughtfully planned investment diversification reduces risk and increases the likelihood that your investments will grow enough under different economic conditions so that you can meet your financial goals. Avoid the temptation of buying into the "hot tip" investment, usually suggested by a friend or co-worker. These will usually cost you time, money and often friends.

5. Failure to stay informed and involved. Nobody expects you to be a certain level of trust involved, the financial decisions that you reach should make good sense to you.

6. Failure to organize your financial records. While some people are able to utilize their financial planner to help them keep accurate records, others must tackle this job on their own. It is difficult to monitor your progress if you do not have accurate records. Organized records will also make life easier on your heirs.

7. Failure to seek professional help. Given the thousands of financial products to choose from, the ever changing tax laws, and the overall complexity of comprehensive financial planning, all but the very financially astute are well advised to seek the help of a skilled financial planner. Be sure the planner you choose is well qualified. Ask for the check references. Make sure you understand how the financial planner gets compensated. The right financial professional will keep you on the road to financial security.

Editor's note: Terrance R. Gaertner, a Certified Financial Planner and Certified Public Accountant, is president of Chicago Financial Advisors, Inc., Chicago, a financial planning company for individuals and business.

financial expert, but you need to understand the financial decisions that you are making even though you may be working with a financial advisor. A lack of knowledge and/or a lack of involvement could allow you to work with an incompetent advisor. Be sure your financial planner is qualified. While there is a

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By

Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: What is glaucoma? Can it cause blindness?

ANSWER: Glaucoma results from excessive pressure on the optic nerve in the back of the eye, created by excessive build-up of the natural fluid inside the eye. It's the second leading cause of blindness among people over the age of 40. Fortunately, with early diagnosis and treatment this problem can almost always be controlled and blindness prevented.

The fluid keeps the eye from collapsing. As fresh fluid is produced, the excess drains out through a meshwork of tissue. If this drainage path is blocked, pressure builds and begins to damage the optic nerve which carries visual images from the eye to the brain. Gradually, peripheral or side vision is lost. Eventually the glaucoma victim can only see straight ahead through "tunnel vision." Over time all sight may be lost. Previous damage cannot be reversed, but when glaucoma is diagnosed it can be treated with eye drops or medication. If this is not successful, laser surgery may be used to open up the tissue to provide proper fluid drainage.

WEAR-DATED® CARPET

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

With a writer-director like Peter Hyams and award-winning actors the likes of Gene Hackman and Ann Archer, "Narrow Margin" was an almost guaranteed hit before it opened in theaters this week.

The story of a Los Angeles DA, Hackman, accidentally revealing the whereabouts of a witness to the killing of a mobster, played by Archer, with the mob in close chase, keeps the audience on the edge of their seats throughout.

Being a Hitchcock fan, and finding this one of the same caliber, we'll give "Narrow Margin" a 4.5 stars out of five.

Ann Archer.

Now that we are in the midst of the network battle for viewers with their new fall shows, plus the old ones that survived, we notice an abundance of courtroom epics and a load of new comedy sitcoms.

Robert Urich, who is on his third tv series, drops the Private I image for a slightly different comedy series called "The American Dreamer." Urich uses the talk to the viewer method so well-done on "The Wonder Years," and also used on the new CABLE hit "Dream On" with moderate success. His co-star Carole Kane could steal the show.

From left, Susie Flax, art selection chairperson, and Linda Babat, ceramic artist, get ready for the 31st Annual Arts and Riverwoods art show and house walk, set for Oct. 6 and 7.

The public is invited to view artworks on display in five homes in Riverwoods from noon to 5:30 p.m. For information, call (708)948-8529.

Erase 50 years from the calendar and cars had runningboards, boats were made of wood, outboard motors needed a starter rope and most airplanes were called taildraggers. Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 29 and 30 in Lake Geneva.

Over 600 classic, antique and special interest vehicles, boats of inboard and outboard variety and a number of antique airplanes will assemble in the area from all parts of the country to support the American Cancer Society. Advance registrations are far ahead of any past Rally.

The unusual event, is sponsored by the Corinne Kreissl Memorial Foundation, Inc., of Lake Geneva with the cooperation of the Americans Lake Geneva Resort, Geneva Lake Area Chamber of Commerce, Walworth County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and Walworth County CB Radio Club. Over $5,000 in prizes await the winners of the around the lake tour for children's cancer research. The host site for the event is the Americana, one mile east of downtown Lake Geneva.

Registration for the rally, is from 1 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, and from 9 to 11 a.m. on Sunday at the Americana Ski Chalet. Stops in five zones around the lake include: Americana Lake Geneva Resort, Next Door Pub, Mar's Resort, Foley's Bar and Grill, Gollwitzer's, Bay Shore, Geneva Street Grille, Abbey Yacht Club, Chuck's, The Lower Zone, Fisherman's Inn, Kirsch's and Celebration on Wells Street. Saturday participants need not attend Sunday's event to be eligible for rally participation prizes.

Added attractions this year include an Antique Wood Boat Show by the Blackhawk Chapter of the Antique Classic Boat Assn. at the Abbey Yacht Club in Fontana and an Antique Outboard Motor Show by the Midwest Chapter of the Antique Outboard Motor Club at Mar's Resort on Lake Como.

The Classic Car Rally's own air wing called, Liflight or Flight for Life, featuring antique airplanes and Warbirds from the World War II era, will be on display and overhead at the Americana field next to the Ski Lodge on Sunday only, weather permitting.

The Classic Car Rally will again feature a Grand Car Show Finale at the Americana Lake Geneva Resort Ski Chalet on Sunday at noon. Prizes, trophies, consolation prizes and dash plaques to participants will be awarded at 2 p.m., after winners for both days are determined. Admission to the car show is free, however, donations are accepted and a souvenir badge donation will provide shuttle bus transportation to the show site.

Last year's event brought 740 vehicles and raised $20,000. Since the event was originated in 1978, $125,000 has been raised for childhood cancer research, in memory of Corinne Kreissel.

Participants can pre-register by mail contacting the American Cancer Society, P. O. Box 732, Lake Geneva, WI 53147. Pre-registration forms are also available at the Geneva Lake Area Chamber of Commerce and all participating locations. For additional information call (414)248-3536 or (414)495-4766.

The College of Lake County's Community Gallery of Art will celebrate its 10th anniversary on Friday, Oct. 5, from 7 to 9 p.m. Music will be provided by Jazz Spectrum.

The exhibit is free and open to the public from Oct. 5 through Nov. 11. This is a project of the CLC Foundation and the gallery of art is funded in part by a grant from the Ill. Arts Council.

Miller walks in brother's footsteps, joins Shaw

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

John and Virginia Miller of Gurnee have produced two fine young professional musicians as their sons, Dan and David, Harry Connick, Jr. Orchestra.

Though of a different music generation, both boys are playing a lot of the music from their parents' era for a profession.

David Miller is joining the Artie Shaw was studying at the Interlochen Arts Academy for the Arts, graduating two years ago.

As proof of the school's quality training methods, Miller played with the jazz ensemble just before graduating two years ago when the National Assn. of Jazz Educators invited only four high schools to perform. Interlochen was one of those four so privileged.

David Miller attended Warren Twp. High School until his senior year when he switched to Interlochen, playing with a variety of music groups while there.

Before he was asked to join the Shaw group, Miller was furthering his musical education at the University of North Texas in Denton, Tex.

He feels he grew musically under the tutelage of a former Lake County, Don Jacoby, who hails from Waukegan and who is the former director of the Don MacNeil Breakfast Club Orchestra and also the Chicago NBC Orchestra.

David Miller has also picked up some valuable tips from two of his trombone-playing idols, J. J. Johnson and Curtis Fuller, helping him greatly with his technique.

Just think, if the boys keep their professional careers on the upswing, maybe we'll be seeing the Dorsey Brothers reincarnated, especially if they can wend their ways to the same orchestra.

David Miller

The Miller brothers from Gurnee, who are playing big band music with name groups, could become another Dorsey duo.

are both making beautiful music with big name bands.

Dave Miller of Gurnee is joining the ranks of another successful Gurnee musician, his brother Dan, who is on tour playing trumpet with one of the hottest musical groups in the country, the Orchestra which is now directed by one of the most renowned clarinet players in the world, Dick Johnson.

Miller will be playing lead trombone with the Shaw ensemble, a role not new to him since he was lead trombone player in the Interlochen Jazz Ensemble will he

Laughlin Revisited

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

It had been about three years since I visited what could be called Las Vegas on a river. It was time for another trip.

I'm talking about Laughlin, Nevada. Located about 90 miles south of Las Vegas, this little gambling city sure has grown! Just since my last visit, Harrahs, the Golden Nugget and the Pioneer have all decided to cash in on the tremendous growth and have opened resorts here. Sam's Gold Town has added a twenty-five story tower, and the Edgewater is in the process of completing an even taller one.

Laughlin, Nevada, is the dream of one man. Back in 1966 Don Laughlin reopened a bankrupt bar with eight motel rooms. Since the bar had been licensed in Nevada for ten years, he was able to acquire an unrestricted gambling license.

On my latest visit I stayed at what had been that motel/bar. It has grown to over six hundred rooms! Right across the street is the Laughlin Bank, owned by Don Laughlin; across the river is the Bullhead City Airport, owned by Don Laughlin. The restaurants in town are supplied with prize beef raised on Don Laughlin's sixty-one thousand acre cattle ranch.

If you want to know more about Mr. Laughlin, he sells videos at his hotel of his life story. So the guy's got an ego.

Transportation between the casinos in Laughlin is rather unique. Free riverboats shuttle players between resorts. You can also walk along the river and feed bread to waiting schools of fish that surround the boat docks anytime someone steps out on one.

I would still only recommend Laughlin as an overnight diversion from Las Vegas. Entertainment is limited, though the riverside is starting to get some name acts. There is little shopping aside from gifts shops in the resorts.

By the way, I did overnight in Vegas at an off-the-strip all-suite resort that offered in-room whirlpool tubs, microwave ovens, mini-bars and refrigerators. During November and December, rooms are just $35! Tell you more next week.

Dinner outshines play at the set

The Set, a Chicago-based experiment in interactive dinner-theater, has bucked the odds, survived its first 15 months and is now dishing out a second offering.

This time the environmental theater at 2743 N. Lincoln Ave. takes on the trappings of a fictional small-town college. Guests arriving for the production, "At the Reunion," are greeted effusively like long lost buddies who have turned out for the 17th Class of '73 reunion.

Written and directed by two former Second City members (Rick Hall and Joseph Keefe) and produced by Gilda Moss, "At the Reunion" is an inconsequential comedy featuring a cast of nine who assume various roles from reunion chairman to college dean and class nerd to successful graduate-turned-movie star. A thin story line is interspersed between courses throughout the evening, often intrusively overlapping servings.

The dramatic side of "At the Reunion" tries to be good fun but comes across as a stilted exercise.

The dining experience, on the other hand, is first rate. Chef Rich Ladd, take a bow! Guests will find fewer courses but larger portions; each dish is attentively prepared. Starters include an appealing two-potato bisque, followed by a tasty salad with chopped pears, nuts and walnut oil vinaigrette. There's a tart cranberry sorbet as an intermezzo followed by the choice of stuffed rib eye, roast capon breast or baked fillet of sole in a pastry shell.

Dessert, described as crispy chocolate ravioli in strawberry sauce, was misnamed. Layers of fried dough sandwiched with a caramel-like chocolate may have satisfied the sweet tooth but was a letdown.

The price for performance and dinner varies from $30 a person for the Wednesday matinee to $55 a person on Friday or Saturday night. Wine, including some pricy vintages from the 1940s, and other bar beverages all are sold separately.

Reservation information is available at (312)880-6000.

Fall Foliage

Fall is time for planting trees, shrubs

The nip in the air tells us it is fall, and an excellent time to plant trees and shrubs.

There are some real advantages to fall planting. The weather is usually much better than it is in the spring. Soils aren't soggy wet. Plants can be selected while in full leaf so you know what you are getting. Deciduous plants will lose their leaves and evergreens will cease top growth, but roots will continue to develop through the winter as long as soils remain unfrozen. Plants will be well on their way to becoming established before the onset of hot, dry weather and other accompanying stresses.

It is important to regularly plant new trees and shrubs. Much of the urban forest is even-aged. The plants were all started at the same time and will expire at the same time. Recent extremes of weather have damaged trees and killed shrubs. Damaged plants, especially large trees, often continue to decline over a number of years and eventually die. Unless there are trees of all ages with an area, losses can be devastating. We witnessed this with loss of elms in the 50's.

Buying plants that have been proven to adapt to this environment is best. Native plants are at the top of this list. Stay away from exotic planting which may have peculiar likes or dislikes. For instance, pin oak, some of selections of red maples, and some birches cannot tolerate our alkaline soils.

Red pine and paper birch suffer from hot summer and attract borers. Some crabapples and sycamores lose their foliage from diseases in wet weather.

To avoid some of these problems, buy plants grown in nurseries as close to this area as possible.

Nurserymen usually avoid growing varieties which they feel are troublesome. If plants have problems in their nurseries, the same plants will most likely be troublesome in your landscape.

Also, local nurseries have soils very similar to those throughout this area, heavy and alkaline. It is important to select plants grown in soils as similar as possible to those where plants will be installed. This reduces the chances of interface problems and the bathtub effect. Do not plant sand or peat grown plants in heavy clay soils. Plants grown locally have been through six or seven seasons so you know they can tolerate the Chicagoland weather.

Needle type evergreens can be planted now.

Deciduous plants can be dug when foliage hardens up and begins to change color. Stop by a local nursery to select the tree you have wanted to shade that west side bedroom, or to replace that one that died. Pick up a few flowering shrubs for that bare spot in the side yard. you will be doing your part in assuring that our urban forest will be here for future generations.

Feeding birds in fall, winter is enjoyable

As the weather grows colder, birds face one of their greatest survival challenges—finding food and water.

This fall, revive the early European custom of honoring the birds. They are more than just fellow residents of our world. Their colors, songs, behavior and mere presence are sources of pleasure for all.

Choose a tree this is highly visible from your home, but at a slight distance, so you can attract some of the shyer species. Use a different feeder with a different menu, to attract many types of birds.

Birdseeds are the mainstay of any winter feeding program. They are inexpensive, easily stored and convenient to use.

Sunflower seeds are one of the most popular. Ounce for ounce, they contain as much protein as ground beef. There are three types of sunflower seeds for birds: blackoil, black-stripe, and gray-striped. The small black-oil seeds generally attract the largest number of birds, but all three types are great favorites of many birds, including house sparrows, chickadees, white-throated sparrows, song sparrows, and tufted titmice.

Cardinals are especially attracted to safflower seeds. Cracked corn and thistle seed are favorites of finches, tree sparrows and mourning doves. Hulled sunflower hearts and chips are favorites of finches, white-throated sparrows, nuthatches, cardinals and tufted titmice. Blue jays eat many kinds of seeds, grains, nuts, berries and fruit.

Once you start feeding birds you will need to continue the practice all winter, because birds quickly learn to depend on supply sources.

Early autumn ideal time to fix up your lawn

Early autumn is the best time of the year for tackling lawn chores. Warm days, cool nights, and above-average rainfall create the perfect environment for germinating grass seed; it's more comfortable to work; and meddlesome weeds die away.

Every successful lawn starts with good seeds, proper fertilizing, and great soil. Few soils are born terrific; but they can be coaxed to excellence with the right soil amendment. Canadian Sphagnum Peat Moss, an all-natural, environmentally safe soil conditioner, is ideal for all soils. It aerates heavy clay, so prevalent in North American, and adds body to light sandy soil. Canadian Peat Moss also absorbs up to 20 times its weight in water, then releases it slowly to thirsty plant roots as they need it.

Now, step back, take a good critical look at your lawn, and decide what needs improvement. Common problems include thatch build-up, dog urine spots, and compaction. Following are a few solutions to some common law woes:

Removing thatch: That springy feeling underfoot probably means thatch build-up. Thatch is a layer of living and dead grass stems and roots that impedes the penetration of water, air, and light. Remove thatch every couple of years by using a hand thatch rake or a rented power dethatcher.

Aerating: Heavy traffic from outdoor parties or children playing can compact grass, and make it hard for grass roots to get the air, water, and nutrients they need to grow. To remedy, aerate the lawn by using a rented power aerator to pull plugs out of the soil and encourage healthy grass development. Rake off the plugs, then topdress the lawn with Canadian Peat and reseed following steps below.

Spot patching: If lawn problems are confined to 25 percent or less of the total area, then spot patching is the solution.

Purchase the best grass seed available. Cheap seed is not bargain; it's slow to germinate and may contain a high percentage of annual grasses and even weeds. The best lawn grass for temperate areas is a mixture of tall fescues, perennial rye, and Kentucky Bluegrass. Fescues tolerate shade well, while rye and Kentucky Bluegrass are sun lovers.

To spot patch, loosen the soil in the affected area to a depth of four to six inches with a shovel. For dog urine spots, remove a couple inches of the highly acidic soil and throw it away.

Spread a two-inch layer of Canadian Sphagnum Peat Moss over the spot, then top this with a thin layer of starter fertilizer. Using a garden fork, work the mixture into the top six inches of soil.

Reseed at a concentration of eight to 10 seeds per square inch. Rake lightly so that seed is just barely covered by the improved soil mixture. Keep new seeds moist until they germinate.

Top dressing: To dressing holds seeds in place and protects them against wind and drying sun. Lawns should be top dressed after dethatching, aerating, and spot patching. To top dress, apply 1/4 to 1/2 inch layer of moistened Canadian Peat Moss and water lightly but thoroughly.

The complete overhaul: If more than 25 percent of the lawn is in poor condition, it is advisable to re-vamp it completely. First, aerate with a power aerator, then spread a one-inch layer of Canadian Peat Moss over the entire area.

Next, use a verticutter, a machine that slices deeply into the soil, to loosen dead grass and thatch while it mixes in peat moss to encourage anew well conditioned, seedbed. Broadcast a high quality seed over the entire bed, rake in lightly, and roll. Finish with a top quality 5-5-5 fertilizer, which encourages vigorous new seedlings.

If the lawn has been completely taken over by crabgrass and weeds, it may be best to kill off everything first by using a contact herbicide. There are safe, organic varieties available. Wait three days after use and follow the above steps.

A law requires care and attention, and cool fall weather and Canadian Peat Moss can make chores a lot more enjoyable.

Fertilizing trees tip

The best time to plant and transplant trees and bushes is in middle to late fall, when roots are in their most active phase of growth and leaves are close to being inactive.

Trees are functional plants. Not only are they pleasing to look at, but they provide shade from sunshine and protection from the wind. You can lower heating and cooling costs simply by locating trees strategically around your house.

When fertilizing trees use a multi-purpose spreader rather than applying fertilizer by hand. Applying by hand tends to be rather uneven, which can lead to uneven growth.

ACHS reunion

ANTIOCH — The members of the 1940 graduating class of Antioch High School met to hold a reunion at the Antioch Golf Club with 58 in attendance, 32 of those former ACHS students. The class's two advisors, Melvin Stillson of Antioch and Esther Fledderjohn Ferner of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, also attended. Classmates traveled from California, Arizona, Utah, Florida, Colorado, Kentucky and Wisconsin. A Sunday morning breakfast was followed by a tour of the high school conducted by Supt. Gary Allen.

Pact key factor

RIVERWOODS — An intergovernmental agreement, as yet unsigned, could hold the key toward the purchase of the Thorngate Country Club by the Lake County Forest Preserve Board. That is what a group of about 30 Riverwoods residents were told Saturday during a meeting held to explain the vote on the Nov. 6 ballot.

$6 million pact

GRAYSLAKE — On Friday, Sept. 28 at 5 p.m., at the American Legion Bldg. on Seymour in Grayslake, there will be a special signing ceremony held for parties involved in the $6 million intergovernmental agreement concerning developer donations from the Lexington-Pulte subdivisions to the Grayslake Park Dist., Library Dist. Fire Protection Dist. and School Dists. 127 and 46. The $6 million donations will be in cash and land donations to the various entities from the two developers.

Team forfeits

RICHMOND — The Richmond-Burton football team got an unexpected week off from the schedule when Huntley High School decided to forfeit the next two games. Richmond was scheduled to travel to Huntley Sept. 28. Injuries had depleted the Redskins squad. Richmond next hosts Harvard Oct. 5 in a Big Eight Conference showdown.

Free leaf pickup

LIBERTYVILLE — Free fall leaf pickup will be provided by the village. Waste Management will perform the task at a low bid price of $11,200. Residents who have already paid Waste Management $3.70 per week for this service will receive a rebate. The free pickup from mid-October to the end of November was started in response to complaints about the rising cost of monthly refuse pickups.

Receive check

FOX LAKE — The Chain O'Lakes-Fox River Water Management Agency received a check for $15,000 in restitution for the misappropriation case of Albert Moltrun, former director of the agency. Moltrun pled guilty to a felony offense and was given 24 months on probation with the understanding the money would be paid back.

Teachers to walk

WAUCONDA — Wauconda Unit Dist. 118 teachers plan to walk off their jobs early as Monday, unless the school board offers them a salary, comparable to other districts in the area. Teachers' latest proposal was for 36 percent increase over three years. The board offered 23 percent, with nine percent the first year and seven percent the following two years. Starting pay for Dist. 118 teachers is $19,250 and top pay is $42,375. The teachers filed an intent to strike with the state labor board Wednesday, after an unsuccessful mediation session Tuesday night. Collective bargaining laws protect teachers from being fired for taking strike action.

$30,500 embezzled

ROUND LAKE — Barbara Ann McCluskey, 40, an insurance clerk at the administrative offices of Round Lake Unit School Dist. 116, was arrested at her home and charged with theft after the new auditing firm for Dist. 116 discovered a discrepancy in the school district's accounts. When the bank records were checked, an unreported check, made out to McCluskey was discovered to have written checks out to herself over a three-year period totalling $30,500.

Advice for chief

MUNDELEIN — Acting Fire Chief Randy Justus, 38, was named the new full-time chief this week at a salary of $51,273 annually. He is also required to live in the village, as Justus has for his 15 years on the department. In making the appointment trustees advised against not "tending to business at the sake of socializing with others in the county" such as the Lake County Fire Chief's Assn.

Talks cuts

GURNEE — Gurnee Dist. 50 Board of Education members will host three meetings for the public to give viewpoints for possible $500,000 in budget cuts for the 1992-93 school year. The first meeting will be at 7 p.m. Oct. 9 at the Viking Junior High multi-purpose room. The second will be Oct. 16 at 7 p.m. at Spaulding School North with the third at 7 p.m., Oct. 23 at Gurnee Grade School. The district is seeking voter approval for a $5.4 million elementary school and a 75 cents per $100 of assessed valuation increase for the education fund. Supt. Wayne Schurter called the prospect of such cuts "sickening".

Chipping away the old

Senior drivers stay sharp with workshops, new habits

Race care drivers and older drivers have at least one thing in common, they both need to be extra cautious behind the wheel.

Race care drivers have to be award of high-speed competitors on the occurs and high speed. Older drivers need to take extra care because physical changes that occur over the years affect their driving ability.

The aging process causes changes in a person's vision, hearing, reaction time and decision-making ability. This doesn't mean that driving should be considered unsafe after a certain age. Age alone is a poor predictor of the driving performance of any individual.

Today's senior citizens are healthier than ever and take great pride in their mobility. To protect their driving rights and ensure public safety older drivers should cultivate new driving habits.

Studies show that older drivers who take part in exercise, stress reductions and driver training programs improve their road skills. The gain physical flexibility in turning their bodies and shoulders, increasing their field of vision, and suffer less anxiety in situations such as driving during fog or rain, or yielding on the freeway.

The American Assn. of Retired Persons (AARP) offers "55 Alive/Mature Driving," a workshop to help improve senior citizen's driving skills. The workshop shows how medications, diminished eyesight and slowing reflexes affect driving skills, and provides tips on how to combat them.

Some state license bureaus offer "Senior Service" days, during which the elderly get more individual attention and testing, and avoid standing in long lines.

The need for such programs will continue to grow as the number of older drivers continues to increase. Currently, 12 percent of the U.S. population is 65 or older; by the year 2020, 17 percent will be past 65.

Older drivers can take commonsense precautions on their own to help ensure safe, trouble-free driving: Make seat belt use a habit; know the roads and ask passengers to help navigate; don't mix medications and motoring; and avoid driving at dawn and dusk.

Fact & Figures

There are nearly 10 people for every motor vehicle in existence in the world. The largest portion of the world's 515 million vehicles—nearly 40 percent—are in North and Central America.

AUTO MART

October is Car Care Month

This is a true or false test.
1. October is Car Care Month?

Answer: True. 1990 represents the 10th year to celebrate "Good Vehicle Maintenance" during October.

2. The appropriate place to deposit your old antifreeze is down the drain?

Answer: False. The appropriate disposal options include recycling it, sending it to a hazardous waste treatment facility.

3. Each year, 20 times the amount of oil spilled by the tanker Exxon Valdez in Alaska is dumped into America's environment by do-it-yourselfers.

Answer: True. However, we can each do our part by responsibly disposing of oil and other chemicals properly.

4. Most Automotive Service Establishments must accept waste oil from consumers.

Answer: True. If the establishment sells at least 500 gallons of oil a year and has on-premise oil changing operations, it must accept up to 5 gallons of waste oil per person per day.

5. A limited number of old tires may be deposited at most local landfills.

Answer: True. Check first the number is usually limited if they accept tires.

6. The appropriate place to dispose of your old car battery is your garbage?

Answer: False. Batteries are hazardous wastes when disposed. They contain corrosive sulfuric acid and toxic lead. The best way to dispose of an old battery is to take it to a recycler. Check the yellow pages under "Scrap Metals."

Motorists urged to promote clean air

During the nationwide observance of Car Care Month, the American Lung Assn. (ALA), the Christmas Seal People®, is urging motorists to properly maintain their motor vehicles, including cars and trucks, to control air-polluting emissions. Exhaust from poorly maintained motor vehicles contributes significantly to air polluting emissions. The annual car care observance is designed to promote clean air, fuel economy, and highway safety.

According to the ALA, automobile usage in the U.S. has increased three-fold, and the use of commercial vehicles has increased four-fold in the last three decades. These increases have resulted in higher levels of motor vehicle-related air pollutants which have become health-threatening in many parts of the country.

The ALA estimates that motor vehicle emissions account for 58 percent of the total carbon monoxide, 38 percent of the airborne lead, 27 percent of the hydrocarbons, and 34 percent of the nitrogen oxides emitted in the air. These pollutants may contribute to the incidence and aggravate existing cases of major lung diseases.

BILLING

400-33 BILLINGS
Landmark Designs

Looking for a home that's both cozy and spacious? The Billings may be just the ticket.

A gambrel, or barn-shaped roofline, and redwood siding give this three-story home the look of a cabin you would expect to find dwarfed by tall conifers at the end of a snowy mountain trail. Building the Billings as a year-round home just might allow its owners the fantasy of being on fulltime vacation.

On the main level, open beams stretching up the side walls and to the peak of the high vaulted ceiling of the living room bring the cabin flavor inside. Most shared activities will take place in the great room on this level. Due to the inward sloping interior walls created by the exterior roofline, the kitchen counter along the outside wall is exceptionally deep. Sliding glass doors in the dining room open onto a wide deck.

A luxurious master suite fills the entire upper level, while two additional bedrooms, a bathroom and a large family room occupy the basement space below. Wide hearths at the far end of both the family room and living room offer warmth, color and an open invitation to spend leisurely hours watching the flames. Each comes complete with a wood box easily large enough to hold a week's supply of wood.

Exposed beams also grace the walls and ceilings of the master suite. The sleeping room is separated from the high ceiling of the living room by nothing more than a wide balcony railing which stretches along the widest edge of the sleeping area. While waiting for sleep to come, this allows the luxury of watching the flickering shadows from the fireplace below as they play across the bedroom ceiling.

For a study plan of the BILLINGS (400-33), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

Used tire collection program Oct. 12, 13

Now is the time to get rid of those old tires in your shed, machine shop or garage. A used tire collection program is being conducted under the auspices of the Lake County Farm Bureau, Fair Assn. and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA).

Tires will be collected on Friday, Oct. 12 and Saturday, Oct. 13 at the Lake County Fairgrounds. Tires may be dropped off between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. each day at the fairgrounds on Rte. 120 in Grayslake.

Old tires can be a potential health hazard as well as cause air and water pollution problems. They do not degrade or decompose in landfills either. New state law prohibits landfills from accepting whole use tires for final disposal after July 1, 1994.

Initially, IEPA's concern was the link between old tire and serious diseases, including encephalitis. Eventually most abandoned tires collect water. When the water stagnates, it provides an ideal breeding place for mosquitos. Even the tires' dull black color is a problem because it warms up quickly to create the kind of environment mosquito larvae welcome. Grass and other debris falling into the water can provide nutrients.

The new tire regulation law makes it illegal to dump, dispose of or burn tires openly on either public or private property. Any site where 50 or more tires are stored must be registered with the IEPA.

Farmers with less than 20 used tires on their property are exempt from the law, but if more than 20 but less than 50 are stored, the tires must be altered (by drilling or shredding for instance) so they won't hold water, or be covered or stored inside to prevent water accumulation.

Farm Bureau and the Fair Assn. is offering the tire collection program to help residents dispose of these extra used tires and comply with the current Illinois law.

Tire collection program guidelines are as follows:

•No tires will be accepted from retailers such as tire dealers, gas stations, etc.

•No tires will be accepted on rims.

•No large industrial/off road tires will be accepted (tractor, truck and passenger care tires are acceptable).

•Property owners with a large accumulation of tires (greater than 100) can make special arrangements to have the tires picked up at their site.

•All participants must complete and sign a consensual removal agreement before their tires are unloaded.

•The maximum number of tires which an individual may bring is limited to 500.

Crash at train crossing kills two Wadsworth residents

Bright sun may have been a contributing factor in a crash which killed two Wadsworth residents early Saturday morning.

Robert G. Morley, 57 and Robert G. Morley, Jr. died after their pick-up truck hit a Chicago and Northwestern freight train. The accident took place at the train crossing of 21st St. in Wadsworth.

"The sun was coming up in the east and at a very low level making visibility for eastbound traffic difficult,"

Lt. Jim Christopherson of the Lake County Sheriff Dept. said.

Christopherson said the younger Morley was driving. The crossing had flashing lights but no gates. Morley swerved off the roadway, and his 1985 Nissan truck hit the third train car. The truck was found tipped over and the two were pinned inside. Extrication devices were used and both were pronounced dead at the scene of the 7 a.m. incident.

Domantoy beats wind, foes in race

Braving a stiff breeze and adjusting to a new course, Greg Domantay came home with top honors in the Centre Club 10K race Sunday.

Domantay, a Lake Forest resident, had a time of 29:59, edging out second place finisher Craig Young.

"The wind was the tough part, but I had a very good race," Domantay said.

A runner for 16 years, Domantay is employed at Condell Medical Center, site of the race.

Jean McGould was the first female finisher in 34:21. "The course was great but the wind was too much," the Chicago resident said.

McGould is a newcomer to running combatively, as she has done it for 18 months.

Bob Scott of Naperville said a lot of people overdress for the conditions. "When the wind is high, you have to get behind (Continued on Page 44)

Runners seek a strong start in the 10K Centre Club Run. More than 1,300 runners braved the stiff winds and 40 degree temperatures to participate in the races. Gregg Domantay of Lake Forest was the 10K winner in 29:59. Photo by Steve Peterson.

It's Homecoming Time

Skyhawks hope to show they belong in loop elite

When the Round Lake Panthers battle Johnsbury Sept. 29 for a Homecoming game, the Panthers will probably wear a No. 4 on their jerseys, attached to a single sheet of paper.

Just what the catching phrase will be one may not know until the 1 p.m. game, but Round Lake will try to continue its effort to take over dominance of the Northwest Suburban Conference. Johnsbury Coach Hap Farlow knows what he is up against.

"We will find out what we are made of. I'm very concerned about how easily they (Round Lake) beat Wauconda," Farlow said, referring to Round Lake's 26-7 win.

The Skyhawks find themselves in the unfamiliar position of tied for first place with the Panthers, both with 2-0 records in the Northwest Suburban Conference. Both are 3-1 overall.

The Skyhawks may be new to this thing called competing for a title, but they will be coming off a resounding win over Marengo. Senior fullback Mike Kramer led the way with three touchdowns.

Kramer took the long way to paydirt, scoring on a 55-yard pass from Scott Chrisman, a 77-yard run and a 44-yard run. Phil Farrell and Scott Malecki scored the other touchdowns for the Skyhawks.

Farlow said he has not decided on the QB for the Round Lake test, as he could go with Scott Dullberg.

Long gone are the days when Johnsbury would give up hundreds of points and yards in defense. "We have a real good defensive unit and they are not afraid to knock some socks off," Farlow said.

Malecki, a 5-8, 160-pound linebacker, leads the team in tackles. Most of the Skyhawks who play on the defensive side of the ball are also wrestlers, Farlow said.

And come Sunday, the Skyhawks could have the NWSC race in a full Nelson.

Rams aim to solidify spot in NWSC title race

Grayslake Community High School students started the Homecoming week in a semi-traditional way.

The school, early Monday, was cluttered with toilet paper in the friendly kickoff to a week-long worth of activities.

Coach Bill Johnson is hoping the Rams can take a business-like approach to the 1 p.m. contest with Marengo Saturday.

"We are treating it as just another game," Johnson said.

The Rams, 1-1 in the Northwest Suburban Conference and 2-2 overall, are coming off a 21-14 win over previous conference power Marian Central. The home team spotted the Hurricanes a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

"I was beginning to question if our minds were in the game," Johnson said.

The answer came quickly. Mark Sneyd scored the first of two touchdowns, on a 74-yard scamper. "It was a dive play and he broke through the second hole. We don't do anything fancy," Johnson said.

Steve Sidelecki's touchdown pass from Tom Culhane accounted for Grayslake's second score, in the third quarter. A loss from Sneyd to Jim Slyva gave the Rams a lead.

Sneyd's one-yard touchdown run in the final stanza was the game-breaker.

Culhane went the whole way at quarterback. Johnson praised the signal-callers' leadership, noting that he encouraged Sneyd to stop talking to MC players at one point.

As for the Marengo Indians, the Rams are facing a team which is running the option more now.

Panthers give tips on winning in NWSC race

Round Lake gave the Wauconda football team a few tips on how to play winning football in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The Panther formula for 1990 consists of: A) inspiration for teammates or classmates who have suffered tragedies, B) a swarming and ever-improving defense, and C) an option attack which is second to none in the league.

Oh yes, there were tips in the 26-7 romp by Round Lake over the Bulldogs. Just ask Garrett Horn. Horn, the last in the long line of Horn athletes from Round Lake, found himself falling backwards deep in the Wauconda end zone on the first play of the fourth quarter. Taking the ball away from a Wauconda defender, Horn fell down and made the catch.

"It was one of the best catches I have seen in 25 years of football," Round Lake Coach Mike Dunn, whose team improved to 3-1, 2-0 in the Northwest Suburban Conference, said.

"I saw Mike (Bragg, Round Lake's quarterback) start to run out of the pocket. I started backpedalling," Horn said. Horn accredited tipping drills Round Lake uses in practice as a key. And a few minutes later, he nearly pulled off the feat again.

"We were well prepared for them, but we ran into a numbers problem. They had 56 players and we have 20," Wauconda Coach Bob Kasper said. Kasper saw his team drop to 2-2 after a 2-0 start.

A Round Lake fumble recovery led to the first score, as Bragg found Tom Minkalis open for the first of Minkalis' two touchdowns. The strike came on a third-and-17 play.

Following a 52-yard punt return by Minkalis, Horn did the honors, scoring from two yards out for a 13-0 lead. A few minutes later, Horn found a huge gap in the middle of the Wauconda defense, running 74 yards to put the game out of reach at 19-0 with 3:59 left in the second quarter.

Carmel spikers ready for Lake Forest tourney

Carmel High School's volleyball team will be looking for continued improvement when the Corsairs travel to Lake Forest for a tournament Sept. 30.

The squad, 6-4 overall and 1-1 in the GCAC North, fell to one of the top teams in the state and then lost a three-game match.

"It is an excellent experience. They have a new weapon this year called a jump serve. They were ranked second in the state," Coach Jo Girardi said of McCauley.

Carmel had good moments in the match before falling 15-3, 15-5.

Against Lordes, the Corsairs fell in their first three-game match of the year, 15-9, 5-15, 11-15. "We just weren't keying in on them," Girardi said.

Bridgete O'Rourke was 25 for 26 in passing.

Despite the losses, the Carmel mentor remains upbeat.

"I think as a whole team we are improving," she said.

Antioch must overcome short practice schedule

The schedule-maker did not do the Antioch Sequoia any favors when it comes to the fifth week of the 1990 football season.

The Sequoia are operating on a short week as Antioch travels to Notre Dame to take on Niles North Sept. 27. The game was originally slated for the afternoon of Sept. 28, and Antioch Coach Del Pecahuer would have liked to keep it that way.

"I wish I had another day," Pecahuer said.

Whatever the schedule, the Sequoia will be looking to go above .500 as they evened their NSC mark at 2-2 with a 21-0 win over Warren.

Dale Morgan scored two touchdowns for Antioch on runs of one and two yards. Aaron Martin caught a touchdown pass from Dan Pappadakis for the other score.

"The wind was a big factor. For three-quarters of the game, both teams played at their ends of the field," Pecahuer said.

Antioch's secondary picked off four passes of Warren quarterback Craig Shelton.

Antioch gained 208 yards rushing and 42 yards in passing. Warren faces winless Mundelein in its Homecoming Sept. 29 and Coach Reggie Hughes knows his 2-2 team needs a win.

Warren running back Josh Roberts injured the fibula in a leg was injured in the first half and will be out four weeks. Roberts continued to play, as the Warren staff did not realize the injury until the second half. "He showed a lot of courage," Hughes said.

"We did not execute well in the first half. It was a premise of things to come," Hughes said.

Mundelein is coming into the 2 p.m. game off a 45-0 loss to Stevenson.

Elsewhere in the NSC, Libertyville remained tied with North Chicago for the league lead with a 13-0 win over Lake Forest. The Wildcats, 4-0, are at Lake Forest in a 1 p.m. game Sept. 29, an hour earlier than on the original schedule.

Bulldogs clash in WHS Homecoming

It may not be Ringling Brothers, but Grant football Coach Rob Kruse and his Bulldogs may be going up against a circus in Wauconda.

"It is a circus. They ran 16 passes out of the double slot. It is hard to wonder just what they're running," Kruse said.

Kruse, the second-year Grant Coach, was referring to the "run and shoot" offense employed by Wauconda Coach Bob Kasper. Grant travels to Wauconda in the annual battle of the Bulldogs Sept. 29. The Northwest Suburban Conference tilt is Wauconda's Homecoming.

Grant is coming off a 20-0 domination of Lake Zurich, while Wauconda, 0-2 in NWSC play, fell to Round Lake 26-7.

Grant juniors Steve Kaminsky and Tom Schweiss were named players of the week for harassing Lake Zurich's offense. Tom VonBrickenheim led the defensive effort with 11 tackles.

Grant, 3-1, scored once each quarter against the Bears as Chris Alex scored on 28 and one-yard runs. Brett Morley tallied the other score, from one yard out in the first quarter.

Mohr, Carmel prepare to face league leaders

Judging by the standards of those who like high-scoring games, Friday night's Carmel-Marist contest was not one to remember.

Both teams combined for 15 points in a defensive struggle. But for dramatics, one could not ask for more, pre-Kevin Butler.

Two days before Butler's field goal beat the Vikings, the Corsairs' Chris Mohr stepped up to center stage. He booted a 19-yard field goal with 1:21 left to give Carmel the 9-6 win.

"We thought about having Jason (Taylor) do it, but he was tired. Chris is cool under pressure," Carmel Coach Mike Fitzgibbons said.

Mohr, who also plays goalie for the Carmel soccer team, had missed an earlier chance this season in a season-opening loss to Gordon Tech.

Jerry Foster, Carmel's leading ground gainer with 95 yards, had scored in the third quarter for a 6-6 tie. The Redskins had scored first on a one-yard run by Steve Janisewski in the first quarter.

The win evened Carmel's record to 2-2 overall, 1-1 in the East Suburban Catholic Conference.

The Corsairs next will host league-leading Joliet Catholic Sept. 28 in Mundelein.

"They run a double flat trap offense and have a couple of great receivers," Fitzgibbons said.

Loop test is next for CHS kickers

Increased concentration during East Suburban Catholic Conference games is Priority No. One for Carmel coach Tom Ragen.

"We are not concentrating enough to win a conference title. We are still committing too many mental errors," Ragen said.

The Corsairs, 2-0-1 in the ESCC and 8-2-2 overall, fought St. Josephs to a 1-1 tie Saturday.

Carmel scored first, in the second quarter. Dan Hendrichs tallied the goal off a pass from Eric Schmitt. The goal was the third of the year for Hendrichs. St. Joseph then tied the game up.

The Corsairs downed Lake Forest 1-0 on a goal by senior forward Pete Rodgers off a Hendrichs assist.

The win continued a shutout streak for Carmel goalie Chris Mohr. Mohr, who is also a place kicker for the football team, notched his third shutout in a row, and has allowed just two goals in his last eight matches.

Carmel battles league leader Marist in Chicago Sept. 29 before hosting Notre Dame under the lights at Carmel Oct. 3. Marist and St. Viator are undefeated in ESCC matches.

Reidel boosts NWSC win streak to 6 victories

Somebody had to win this one.

For a while, it appeared Mother Nature would concur the tennis talents of Grayslake's Denise Reidel and Lake Zurich's Hillary Fielly. The match started on Monday but was continued to Tuesday due to darkness.

At stake was the undefeated Northwest Suburban Conference records of both number one singles players.

After the delay, Reidel came out ahead, 6-4, 7-6 with a 7-5 tiebreak.

"It was back and forth,"

Grayslake Coach Paul Keller said. Reidel trailed 4-3 and 5-4 in the second set but rallied to win.

"She is a steady player," Keller said of Reidel.

In other matches during the blustery day at Grayslake, freshman Sarah George of Grayslake won a three-set battle over Kim Postlewaite. After losing the first set 6-4, the young Grayslake player came back to win 6-0, 6-0.

Lake Zurich won the match 3-2 as the Bears won at second singles and both doubles.

Alyssa Frelck, a sophomore, downed Kim Cantrell 6-4, 6-2 at second singles.

In doubles, Kim Biere and Carrie Lehr downed Nicole Shaladek and Sam Maluski in a three-set match. After losing the first 6-3, the Lake Zurich duo came back to win 6-2, 6-2.

Myciah Honegger and Mary Lai of Lake Zurich won at second doubles over Charmaine Lahman and Jennifer Gosch 6-4, 6-2.

On Saturday, Grayslake dropped two 3-2 decisions to Mundelein and Jacobs.

Pape helps Eagles crush Lake County Vikings

When a Lake County football team loses 39-0, one would probably be hard-pressed to find a Lake County resident happy about the situation.

But on a blustery Sunday at Round Lake High School, Steve Pape was just that person. For Pape, a Mundelein High School graduate, plays defense for the winning DuPage Eagles.

"Coach (Jeff) Nuggett found out I was not playing for anyone so he gave me a call to come and try out," Pape said.

Pape, who wears No. 46 for the Eagles, made the team. Pape had spent four years at Lake Forest College.

"The defense did a great job," Pape said. "We played 18 or 19 guys."

The non-conference game for Lake County was the second straight loss after four consecutive wins. For the Eagles, the win was their eighth in a row with a Chicago football league title tilt looming against Racine.

The week did not start on a positive note for the Vikings - maybe Sunday was just not the day to be called Vikings in Chicago. Quarterback and offensive coordinator Sam Toia left the squad, with the quarterbacking duties going to Walter Tesch, whom Coach Al Clark refers to as "the youngster". The Vikings had numerous penalties, the only touchdown they apparently scored called back because of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty and coaches yelling at coaches and players yelling at players.

"It is very difficult to get the regular offense to show up at practice. You can't practice with 50 percent of the team," Coach Al Clark lamented.

The Vikings practice twice a week under the lights at Foss Park Community Center in North Chicago. Clark said early in the year the newfound success of four straight wins may have caused the coach to believe players thought they did not have to practice. Since, Clark has changed his viewpoint. "You can't afford to try and slick past a semi-pro football season," he said.

The Vikings usually strong defense was no match for the quarterbacking of Darrell Hill. Marc May, who has played for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings, outraced the Lake County secondary for an 86 yard TD from QB Darrell King.

On the first play of the second quarter, George Rainev scored from 12 yards out. A few minutes later, Hill led the Eagles on a 74-yard march.

Why are News-Sun employees urging readers to pledge to cancel their News-Sun subscriptions?

Why are News-Sun employees urging shoppers to stay away from News-Sun advertisers?

News-Sun workers in Waukegan, Libertyville and Lake Villa have been struggling to win a fair contract from Copley Press, the California owner of the newspapers, for two years.

Last April, Copley Press representatives walked out of contract talks with its employees, members of Local 71 of The Newspaper Guild (AFL-CIO).

The company walked out despite major employee concessions and despite the fact that progress was being made.

Although employees haven't had a pay raise in more than 2 years, wages were never a major issue in negotiations. Employees agreed to most of the company's major demands for "flexibility." Yet talks were unilaterally broken off by the company. The Guild believes Copley is trying to force a strike to break The Newspaper Guild at The News-Sun.

The day after walking out, Copley imposed new working conditions that reduced employee benefits, allowed the company to invade the private lives of employees and opened the way to eliminate full-time journalists.

We believe the imposed conditions will seriously reduce the quality of The News-Sun.

The Lake County Board and the Waukegan City Council both have urged Copley to return to the bargaining table and start negotiating in a fair way.

Employees are now seeking News-Sun reader support in this struggle. We are asking News-Sun subscribers to fill out the following form and mail it to The Newspaper Guild. The form authorizes cancellation of your News-Sun subscription, if necessary.

Pro-life supporters seek people for 'chain'

A "Life Chain," with as many as 5,000 people standing side by side, will line up at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 7, along Rte. 12, from Fox Lake to Wauconda in an effort to oppose abortion.

Pro-life organizers have invited 500 churches from Lake and McHenry Counties, to participate in the one-hour event. People will stand about six to eight feet apart and hold posters that read, "Abortion Kills Children" during an hour of silence.

Fox Lake resident Julie Barrett Smith thought of holding a Life Chain here, after reading a magazine article about a similar event in California.

The California "Life Chain" ended up with 28,000 people that stretched 17 miles, she said.

"We've been encouraged by the response from pastors," Barrett Smith said, adding she hopes to make this an annual event. Life Chains will also be held on the same day in Cook and DuPage Counties, she noted.

She and Mike Dressler, both from New Beginnings Church in Fox Lake, are organizing the event with Bob August, from Wauconda Evangelical Free Church and Ralph Davis, from Fox Lake Baptist Church.

Children and adults are invited to participate in the event, along with senior citizens. A patrol team will drive through the route, to ensure pedestrian safety.

"We're not trying to say anything political, but we've invited legislators to drive through to see the constituents who will support pro-life candidates," Barrett Smith said.

"Since 1973, when abortion was legalized, 21 million abortions were performed. Nationwide, this amounts to 40,000 abortions per day," she noted.

A $1 donation is requested to cover the cost of 5,000 signs.

Voter registration and Grayslake's Right To Life organization will be available.

For more information, or to participate, call Barrett Smith at (708) 587-0113.

Officials find victim's body

Two Commonwealth Edison employees spotted the body of a Gurnee teen Sept. 18 off Lake Michigan, four days after he drowned. The body was found about 11:10 a.m.

William Harrington's body was found by the workers who then notified the Waukegan Fire Dept. Harrington had drowned while wading off the Commonwealth Edison pier Sept. 14.

Lt. John Dinicola, dive master for the Waukegan Fire Dept., said searches were done by boat along the shoreline of Lake Michigan after diving efforts had been suspended. The current of the intake, which prevents debris from entering the water system, led to the death.

Harrington, 17, was a student at Warren Twp. High School.

Pie in the apple

An attractive, healthy and very tasty variation.

4 large, tart apples

4 heaping Tbls. mincemeat or pumpkin pie, crust included

2 Tbls. unsalted butter

1/4 cup honey

3/4 cup Maderia wine

heavy cream (optional)

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Core apples to 1/2 inch of bottom. With paring knife, make top of hole a bit wider. Fill each apple with 1 heaping tablespoon of pie filling. Dot with butter and drizzle honey over apples.

Heat Madeira wine in small saucepan and pour around bottom of apples. Bake for 30 minutes, basting frequently.

Serve apples immediately in small, shallow bowls. Pass the heavy cream if desired.

Conventional method: Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Using a wire whisk, in medium mixing bowl combine all ingredients except raspberries and syrup and beat until combined. Spray two 10-ounce custard cups with nonstick cooking spray and pour half of the egg mixture into each cup. Set cups in 8x8x2-inch baking pan; pour water into pan a depth of about one inch and bake for 40 to 45 minutes (until a knife, inserted in center, comes out clean). Remove cups from water bath; let custard stand at room temperature for five minutes. Cover and refrigerate until chilled, about 30 minutes.

To serve, onto each of 2 serving plates invert each custard; top each with half of the raspberries and then drizzle berries with half of the syrup.

Makes 2 servings.

Warren soccer enjoys best team yet: Wendorf

When it comes to North Suburban Conference soccer, Libertyville and Stevenson are almost automatically mentioned as favorites.

And the two powerhouses are looming on the horizon for Coach Tom Wendorf and the Warren Twp. High School Blue Devils.

"This is the best team I have had," Wendorf said.

Wendorf, in his seventh year at Warren, was speaking just after a 3-1 non-conference loss to Waukegan at Viking Park last week. Warren came into the match winners of six of nine battles, 2-0 in the NSC.

Chris Corbeil, a senior, is Warren's starting goalie this year, but sophomore Farr Anders also saw action against Waukegan.

Despite the loss, Wendorf was upbeat about his team's chances. "I think we can finish in the top three," Wendorf said.

Wendorf said the reason for the upbeat soccer attitude at Warren is the Gurnee Park Dist. program which now includes traveling teams. Just before the Warren match, one could see a group of youngsters learning the basics on another Viking Park field and youth also practiced following the Warren match.

The Blue Devils are at Zion Oct. 2 for an NSC match and then host Libertyville Oct. 4. Following a tussle with Lake Forest Oct. 9, Warren hosts Stevenson Oct. 11 in another test with a title contender.

Persian Gulf mailing restriction lifted

Grayslake Postmaster Vincent Rooney has announced that he has just received word that the previous 12-once restriction on mail going to military personnel in Operation Desert Shield has been lifted. All classes of mail up to the maximum weight of 70 pounds is being accepted and dispatched.

The only service not available from your local post office is Express Mail Military Service.

In order to avoid disappointment and provide customers with the best service possible, post offices would like to remind their customers of several significant restrictions placed on mail by the Saudi Arabian customs administration.

Some of the restrictions that they have placed on items are a prohibition against any pork or pork by-products, the mailing of any type of firearms, the mailing of any type of religious material contrary to Islamic faith, and the mailing of any type of religious material contrary to Islamic faith, and the mailing of any type of sexually oriented material. These particular types of items, along with any non-authorized political material are strictly prohibited.

Vocational Center seeks volunteers

The Lake County Area Vocational Center, offering advanced vocational education to the high school students of Lake County, is currently seeking volunteers to help tutor and assist some of the students having difficulty in their vocational studies.

"These volunteers can come from all walks of life," state Dick Glogovsky, director of LCAVC. "We are looking for people who have some time to give to our students. It can be a rewarding experience for those volunteers who make the difference in a student truly understanding a concept rather than just glancing over it."

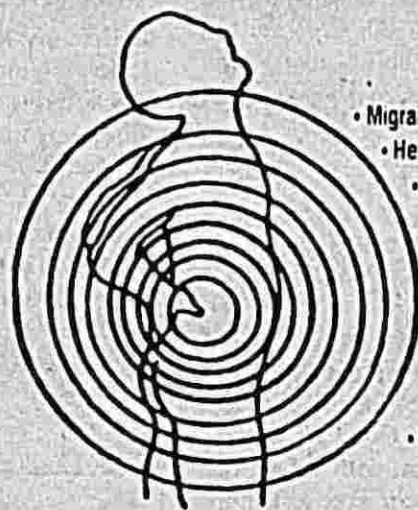

The Lake County Area Vocational Center offers 21 programs to juniors and seniors who attend 23 high schools in Lake, McHenry and Cook counties. The philosophy of LCAVC is to offer state of the art equipment and the best possible instruction. Students earn high school as well as college credit while enrolled in the programs offered by LCAVC. Students attend LCAVC free of charge since the local high school districts pick up the tuition cost.

Persons interested in volunteering their time to help LCAVC students should contact Kathy

Country funds require special attention

by Bro D'Arcy

Many investors are interested in taking advantage of the opportunities available in foreign markets; however, few have the expertise to fully do so. One way to take advantage of international investment opportunities is through closed-end country funds.

As their name implies, country funds invest in the securities of specific countries. And unlike open-end mutual funds, which create new shares to meet investor demand, closed-end funds offer a set number of shares that are generally listed on an exchange and trade like any other stock. This means that the market value of the shares is determined not only by the value of the securities held in the fund, but also by public demand to own the shares.

According to "Research Magazine," 30 new country funds were filed with the SEC in 1989, compared to only eight in 1988. These new funds include the securities of Germany, Spain, Taiwan, Malaysia and Korea, to name just a few.

Although the opportunities of world-wide investing appear bright, many of these closed-end country funds are selling at double or more for each dollar of value. Because there is a limited number of outstanding shares, market demand can unreasonably inflate the price of the fund's stock.

Research sites an example of one fund that began trading in January, 1989 at $15 a share. Within a few days the price of the fund had risen 80 percent. Although world conditions and investor demand could push the fund's stock even higher, it's hard to believe investors are getting a bargain at premiums like that.

A must for successful investing in closed-end country funds should first be to understand what premium you are paying. Each Monday, "Barron's" publishes the market and net asset value of a list of closed-end funds along with any premium of discount reflected in that price. It is to your benefit to study this list before investing. If the premium is inflated, it could take years before the fund's potential meets the current price of its stock.

Most analysts agree that country funds could be a valuable addition to one's investment portfolio. Likewise, they agree that these funds can quickly become overvalued. How much a premium you choose to pay should depend on the economic strength and potential of that particular country.

There is little doubt that foreign markets will offer tremendous opportunity during the coming decade. But, as with any other investments, success comes only to those who selectively buy value at bargain prices. Paying too large a premium is seldom a bargain.

HAMMERTOE DEFORMITY

A deformed toe is one of the most common conditions affecting the foot. This condition is often called a hammertoe, mallet toe or an overlapping toe.

A hammertoe is a flexible or rigid contraction of a toe. It is caused by a weakness in the small foot muscles of the foot which stabilize the toe. This muscle imbalance causes the toe bones to assume an abnormal position.

Shoes often lead to abnormal pressure and friction on the top of the toe, resulting in a painful inflammation, orthotics (inserts in shoes to correct improper walking), removing a section of toe bone to correct the deformity.

If you are suffering from this condition, or have any

If you are suffering from this condition, or have any further questions, contact Dr. Lee M. Tisa for a NO COST CONSULTATION to discuss your treatment options.

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE LOCAL BUSINESS SHOP ANTIOCH

The words have a familiar ring to them, but unfortunately, some of us don't know the rest of the words to the song.

Local business is the heart of our community. These are the businesses that pay local taxes, provide jobs for friends and neighbors, and support community projects and fund drives.

Why not jump on this local bandwagon and support the businesses that support the things we enjoy in the community. The message in the lyrics is simple: SHOP AT HOME. The results will be magic to our community.
